La Libertà TONIGHT!

Fri. January 13th 2017 at 7pm
BOLINAS COMMUNITY CENTER

Tickets: $10-$20 Sliding Scale

Join the ladies of La Libertà at the Bolinas Community Center on January 13th! The mission of La Libertà is to promote true love by deepening the understanding of the human condition. Utilizing melody, narrative, rhythm and exchange, La Libertà offers the remarkable gift of honest and tender insight to shared experiences.

The name La Libertà is Italian for "lady liberty" or "her release." The earthy force and unearthly grace of La Libertà's music is for those who tenderly and fiercely carve their own way - music born from the windy wilds of the northern California coast.

Very excited to finally share Paul Gerard Somers show at The Farmstand. The Opening & Workshop on January 14 is not to be missed. Though this show has been long in the make, it's crazy to see how relevant it looks right now.

If Lee Bontecou and Joseph Beuys had an anti-modernist baby with a mid-western sense of humor, deeply-rooted kindness, and a profound sense of American craftsmanship – this would be Paul Somers. You won't like this show, you will love it.

On January 14, 2-6 PM, you are invited to bring material remains from contemporary culture. We will sew one of Paul's unique quilt-sculptures on site. Dissect, look, and fabricate anew. It's going to be cozy, and I dare to say it may just leave you hopeful for 2017.

Ethan Refal

United We Stand

As well as ushering in confusion and fear, 2017 also presents new possibilities. Twenty-three percent of registered voters are progressive people of color, 28 percent are progressive whites. Together, this is 51 percent of voters: The new majority. (Source: 'Brown is the New White,' by S. Phillips). The changing demographics offer an opportunity to create diverse coalitions and make common cause, for the good of all. Interested?

On Monday, January 16, the annual honoring of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. in Marin City takes place. This year it is entitled "Stand Strong, Be United, Move Forward." The wider community is invited to march at 9am [beginning at St. Andrew ~~Presbyterian~~ Church in Sausalito] and to the program beginning at 10:30am at the Manzanita Center.

This is an opportunity to support and connect with people of like mind and heart. "I have decided to stick with love. Hate is too great a burden to bear. —Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

—Pamela Dake

* March begins 9am in Marin City - 1st church on left off of freeway in M.C.

INDIVISIBLE :
Bolinas Marching Sunday Jan 22 in Community with Women's March in DC & SF

A group of us, men and women, young and old, all sharing the same need to "walk the walk" as our positive response in standing up for human rights, will be walking, ambling, marching, sauntering, and just plain parading in Bolinas on Sunday the 22nd beginning in the park at 2:00. We could proceed on Wharf along the low-tide beach and come up Brighton to complete the circle. We will transition (in the park or plaza) to the beautiful music of the women of La Liberta.

In the interim before they play, I myself hope that we might all voice that lovely "we are one voice one people" sound, as we have done many times before at the end of dancing the maypole circle, when we are all close in gathered together, breath and spirits mingling. We can hear each other's hearts, our prayerful hearts, carrying our voices to the sky.

As a community I see that our intent is moving (and marching!) at an accelerated pace in an ever more concerted effort towards the common good. We can embody the timely realization that if we don't know how to live with each other, we will have no place to live.

Soozy Mills on behalf of Rachel Gertrude and Mimi Calpestri and the many many women of Bolinas whose great minds think alike!
