BOLINAS COMMUNITY PUBLIC UTILITY DISTRICT
BOX 390 270 ELM ROAD BOLINAS CA 94924

HEIGHTENED WATER CONSERVATION ALERT!!!

PLEASE SHUT OFF ALL AUTOMATIC
IRRIGATION SYSTEMS AND DO NOT WATER YOUR LANDSCAPING!!!

PLEASE DO WHATEVER YOU CAN TO REDUCE YOUR WATER CONSUMPTION!

At its January 15, 2014 regular meeting, the BCPUD Board of Directors adopted a "Water Conservation and Dry Year Water Use Reduction Program". The text of the program is posted on our website at www.bcpud.org and it includes provisions defining foreseeable circumstances in which the district will call for heightened voluntary conservation and those in which the district will re-impose mandatory use restrictions (i.e., rationing) so that our customers have a clear articulation of the circumstances that will trigger water rationing and so that the district reduces and/or eliminates the need to take such action on an ad hoc basis. Here is a summary of the key provisions of the program:

Heightened Voluntary Conservation Alert Stage:
At any time when:

- the district's water storage at the Woodrat #1 and Woodrat #2 reservoirs (collectively) is or is projected within the next thirty (30) days to be in the vicinity of, or less than, 10 million gallons, and/or
- historic hydrologic data (Arroyo Hondo creek flows) and/or use patterns (consumption) indicate that a minimum reduction in use is required to assure sufficient carry-over storage, then,
- the BCPUD may activate a heightened voluntary conservation alert program whereby every customer shall be requested to (i) eliminate water waste and (ii) cease all landscape irrigation to aid the district in achieving a twenty-five percent (25%) reduction in the amount of potable water used by all customers during the preceding 12-month period during which no restrictions in water use were required.

Mandatory Rationing Alert Stage: At any time when:

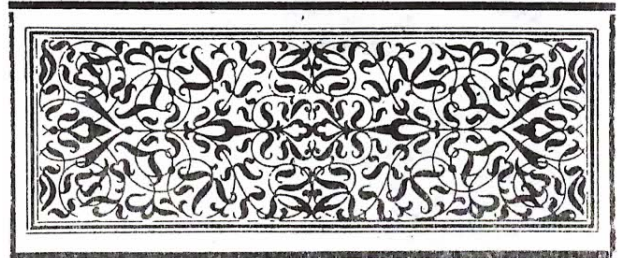

- the district's water storage at the Woodrat #1 and Woodrat #2 reservoirs (collectively) is or is projected within the next thirty (30) days to be in the vicinity of, or less than, 8 million gallons, and/or
- historic hydrologic data (Arroyo Hondo creek flows) and/or use patterns (consumption) indicate that a further reduction in use is required to assure sufficient carry-over storage, then,

TO THE BOLINAS COMMUNITY:

WE WISH TO OFFER OUR HEARTFELT THANKS FOR THE OVERWHELMING LOVE AND SUPPORT YOU HAVE GIVEN US IN OUR BEREAVEMENT FOR JOHN.
WE SO APPRECIATE ALL YOUR HELP WITH THE MEMORIAL.
YOUR CARDS, FLOWERS, CALLS
AND HUGS HAVE TOUCHED US
ALL DEEPLY AND SO HELP TO EASE THE PAIN.

THANK YOU ALL

SAMIRA NASSRAH and FAMILY

- the Board of the Directors of the BCPUD may activate by resolution a mandatory rationing program to achieve the amount of water use reduction needed, as reasonably determined by the BCPUD Board of Directors based on district staff expertise and advice.

At this time, we are under a heightened voluntary conservation alert and it is our goal to encourage the community not to increase water usage, which otherwise typically would start to occur as the weather warms and the days lengthen, and to further reduce consumption to the extent possible. In order to do this, we are asking customers to turn off all automatic irrigation systems, cease (not simply limit) all landscape irrigation (including hand-watering) and otherwise do everything possible to reduce water waste. These measures should enable us to achieve our objective of a twenty-five percent (25%) reduction in use (i.e., 25% of the average water used by all customers during the preceding 12 months). As the above referenced summary of the Water Conservation and Dry Year Water Use Reduction Program indicates, the next step will be to institute mandatory water rationing.

We will continue to keep you updated with news of our water supply via updates on our website (www.bcpud.org), in customer mailers, and in the Hearsay News. If you would like to receive updates via e-mail, please either call our office at 868-1224 or e-mail us at bcpud@bcpud.org with your e-mail address. Thank you!!

WOMB OF THE UNKNOWN MOTHER

I have found a mother willing to accept a blessing and a flower from all who dare bring one. She is unknown in our land, as is her child that will be born later this month. She was completely willing to take the pregnant goddess role in our subconscious need for unconditional blessing of ripe abundance. She has been preparing for this honor for nigh 9 months now. Rain dancers welcome, starving children blessers welcome, gaia worshippers welcome. Just bring one flower and one blessing. Come full of welcoming for life.

PROCEEDS TO BENEFIT BOLINAS COMMUNITY CENTER KITCHEN PROJECT

Some of my favorite 20 photographs are on exhibit at "Gravel & Gold," a store in the Mission owned by two Bolinas women. They selected most of the gallery prints which are all available for purchase., along with some of my books & a beautiful poster of "Leah Cutting Thistles" in Paradise Valley. The poster is also currently hanging in the Bolinas Library.

On January 21, I will talk about my life as a photographer which started weeks after I arrived from Germany in 1964. I thought I would only be in the U.S. for a semester.

"Gravel & Gold" is at 3266 21st st. on the corner of Valencia in San Francisco (94110)

The Winter Celebration on Christmas Day

There was so much love and cooperation at our colorful and lively event I want to thank everyone.

In particular, comes to mind :

Stephanie Roberts- Gourmet Chef, and great organizer and thrifty shopper. As we planned our Menu In Cameleon where she works I saw some beautiful clothes and the jewelry she makes from colored glass (all inexpensive) -check it out.

Chuck Hudina - kitchen helper (also takes my Buddy dog for runs and ball chasing.

Sharon, Jerry Kinsel, Wili Rogers and others who set up tables and table cloths.

Walt Hoffman and Rick Sherman who retrieved and set up the garbage cans so folks could bus their own.

The Music makers: Began with Bill Quist playing for the "kitchen workers" including show tunes that took me down memory lane and then Xmas tunes that I was told one could hear over on Brighton.

Barbara Scott and Elliot came from Stinson (he figured out the lights). Rob Linhoff brought some rice, beans, and tortillas made by his dad Charlie and Stephanie cut up a turkey that Barbara brought for early snacks.

We put out the "Funeral Sandwiches" and 9 layer dip I made w/ pita chips Out of the kitchen went two platters of Spiced Hams and Garlic Bread.

While in the kitchen the most gorgeous music seduced me to run out and it was Peter Turner on Piano & my friend Will Rogers singing and playing guitar.

Others showed up with food including June who made and identified a Vegan Dish w/ recipe (great idea).

There was plenty of food and the last of it was accepted at Smileys (my Rice Dish with almonds, pine nuts, onion and more was a hit)

Wili and Tom Vrolyk and others helped with packing up tables and sweeping floor.

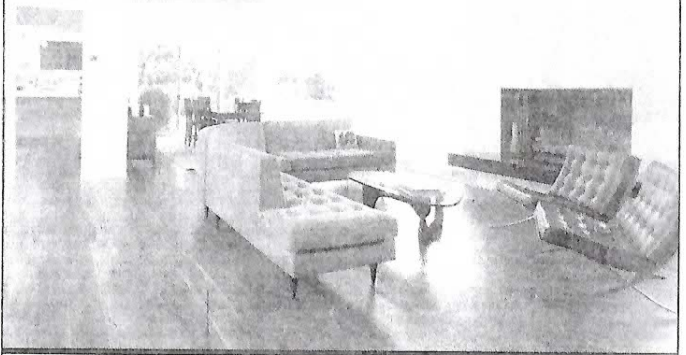

Taro, Maxwell and others washed dishes.

But still, I knew the kitchen needed to be put back perfectly for the People's Store in the morning.

I began to panic, not sure what went where and being mostly out of energy after two days of preparation thinking "oh well, I guess they will just have to fire me from any more celebrations" and then ... Maxwell, walked in the kitchen door and said he knew what to do and I could go. Whew! Saved. Thanks to everyone.

ps, I managed to lose a sack of unpeeled garlic - my gift from the evening. If you found it, I would be happy to share. Was looking forward to multiple uses - like Garlic Soup.
