Two SEEDY announcements from THE S.P.R.OUT SEED LIBRARY! Seed Saving Workshop and our new location!!

THE S.P.R.OUT SEED LIBRARY is alive and seedy- our community based Seed Library has been germinating for a spell. Like a tenacious seedling emerging from the compost pile, we are standing tall excited to share two bits of new news!

The Saturday, October 13th, at the 1st Annual Bolinas Food Festival THE S.P.R.OUT SEED LIBRARY will have a booth and as part of the workshop series offer a free Seed Saving Class in the BCC 12-1pm. This well-rounded class is suitable for beginner and experienced seed savers. We will cover all you need to save the tastiest veggies from your garden, anything that you might still have growing and what to plan for next year.

For our second bit- We will have a NEW PUBLIC location at The Bookstore, downtown Bolinas in Sage's former womb room. Jennie Pfeiffer has sponsored the Seed Library in this space and we are grateful, thank you JP. While this is not a classic time to borrow and plant seeds in the soil we will be busy tending the seeds, preparing for winter, and accepting any seed donations for the community bank. After the Food Festival Seed Saving Class, we will be moving the Seed Library into our new home at The Bookstore, come by and say hi. Reach us at sproutreach@gmail.com your seedy librarian medaabeas

OYEZ OYEZ BOLINAS

Hey Bolinas: know 'tis true?
 All our blacktop's good as new!
 Since our Marin road crew
 With truck, rake and roller
 And shirts wet with July sweat,
 Spread black stuff on Drive and Road
 That black treasure load on load
 From Wharf to way out on Mesa,
 Did a job that must amaze ya,
 Smooth as smooth for Mom with stroller,
 Fer tykes with trikes and folk with bikes;
 Even boards that skate
 Can navigate, confident, elate!
 No more bumps to trammel
 Small wheels or casters
 Or jolt old dentures...
 Chip young teeth of their enamel,
 Or like disasters...dire misadventures....
 Thanks to the road crew of Marin,
 Pits, holes, and bumps hev bin done in!

The Great California ShakeOut is a day of special events featuring the largest earthquake drill ever, organized to inspire Californians to get ready for big earthquakes, and to prevent disasters from becoming catastrophes. The ShakeOut drill will occur in houses, businesses, and public spaces alike throughout California at 10:18 a.m. on October 18, 2012.

Free registration at www.ShakeOut.org/california/register will pledge an individual's or group's participation in this important preparedness event. Participants will receive information on how to prepare for the inevitable major earthquake in the region and what actions to take during and after the shaking.

The Bolinas Fire Protection District would like to invite you to participate along with us as we exercise our emergency communications. Contact us at 868-1566 to find out more about the drill and how you can become better prepared for a disaster. Are you really prepared? What we do now, before a big earthquake, will determine what our lives will be like afterwards.

The Healing of Stories
 Writing workshop and conversation

Workshop: 1:00pm - 4:30pm ($25)
 Free Talk: 7:00pm

Held at the Point Reyes Presbyterian Church

Co-sponsored by Point Reyes Books, the Institute for Art and Healing and The New School at Commonweal, and The Mesa Refuge.

Stories can mend what's broken, can find what's lost, can build bridges over chasms, can make us laugh until we cry and cry until we laugh. Everyone has some stories to tell.

Join us for the workshop: a safe and supportive environment to explore the healing of our own stories. Or, join us for the public conversation at 7pm, to hear Sue talk about her experiences as author and aging human.

Susan Moon is a writer and teacher and for many years was the editor of Turning Wheel, the journal of socially engaged Buddhism. Her most recent book is This Is Getting Old: Zen Thoughts on Aging with Dignity and Humor.

It's the Soccer Club . . . and more!

Since the autumn of 1973 (that's almost 4 decades) the Soccer Club--AKA The Church of Sunday Soccer--has gathered each week for games at Mesa Park. Neither rain nor sleet, gophers or mud have halted these stalwart champions in their quest, cheered on most recently by Miss Kitty [see lower left.] All are welcome to play, regardless of age or level of expertise.

Mesa Park provides a place for fun, exercise, building friendships, and appreciation of the outdoors. Please help us keep this valuable local resource healthy: Vote YES on Measure E. For less than $1 per week per improved parcel ($49 per year) we can provide and maintain not only the soccer field, but also the softball diamond, skate park, children's play area, basketball court and more.

Funding from Measure E is only for the maintenance of the property at 110 Mesa Road, by the Firehouse. The downtown park is privately funded, and any future swimming pool will be maintained by user fees.

Portraits of Light by Tu Ying-ming and conversation with Tu-2, Angela Oh, and Michael Lerner

Please register for this free event using the online registration system on our website.

Join us for a preview of the show 108 Bodhisattvas, as well as a conversation with artist Tu-2 (Tu Ying-ming) and meditation teacher and lawyer Angela E. Oh. The full body of work, 108 Bodhisattvas, will be premiered in 2013 at a workshop and show in Commonwealth Gallery.

Tu-2 is a visual fine artist who focuses on painting, photography, and documentary films. Around six years ago, he started a series of spiritual portraits in chiaroscuro (a light-dark technique with ancient roots)—but using a silver pencil to draw only the light.

Angela E. Oh has worked as an attorney, public lecturer, and teacher of Zen meditation. Oh's public lectures and writings reflect the opportunities and challenges that diversity presents. Oh is also an ordained Priest, Zen Buddhist—Rinzai Sect.

POLISSAR, PERKOFF, & PATTON PLAY AT THE PANAMA

Polissar, Perkoff, and Patton --sounds like a law firm, right? But in fact, it's the trio that will be playing some tasty jazz this coming Wednesday night, Oct. 17, at the Panama Hotel in San Rafael.

If you haven't experienced the Panama, give yourself a treat. The food is excellent, the atmosphere charming, the prices not exorbitant.

Si Perkoff, I continue to say, is one of the best pianists in the Bay Area. Piro Patton, of course, is our own Bolinas virtuoso bass player. And I, of course, blow the clarinet.

My trio with Si is close to finishing a new CD of original music, and we'll be playing some of that repertoire at the Panama.

There's no cover. 7-10 p.m. at #4 Bayview. (From 4th St. go south on "B" to intersection of Bayview.)

COMMONWEAL SEEKS NEW EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

We seek a special person to co-lead Commonweal in the decade ahead. S/he has a sense of a calling. S/he wants to make a difference. S/he wants to be part of a work community dedicated to the commonweal – which means the common good.

The Executive Director will be Commonweal’s CEO -- responsible for the programmatic, financial and legal integrity of the organization. Strengths in nonprofit management and resource development are essential. So are the inner qualities of wisdom, kindness and humility that we prize here.

In nonprofit management, we seek someone with skills in program development and oversight, penetrating understanding of finance and budgets, a gift for nourishing and counseling staff, knowledge of best nonprofit practices, a cool head in crisis management, and the social and emotional intelligence to merit the respect of the Commonweal community and its constituencies. With 50 full and part-time staff, twelve very diverse programs, and program directors with strong creative personalities, we need leadership with solid experience at this organizational level.

In resource development, we seek someone with a proven capacity to attract support from foundations, especially those working in healing and in environmental health, excellent grant-writing skills, and the proven capacity to work with major donors. It would help to have strong networks in relevant funding communities. The Executive Director has major responsibility for Commonweal funding.

Healing is at the heart of Commonweal’s work. The Executive Director must be at home in the “real world” of administration, grants, and finance. But s/he must be equally at home the “inner world” of healing -- love and loss, life and death.

We welcome candidates of all ages, ethnicities and sexual and gender orientations. If you are interested in exploring this opportunity yourself, we welcome your resume and a letter telling us about your life experience. Please send both your letter and resume to Search Coordinator Shelia Opperman at Commonwealfriend03@gmail.com. Please let us know how you heard about this opportunity! We will treat all inquiries with confidentiality and care. Commonweal offers good benefits and compensation commensurate with experience.

With gratitude for your interest,

MYSTERY SOLVED HERO REVEALED

Jeff Clapp is the name of the man who together with an unnamed surfer saved Billy from the pit bull by the surfer's hitting him with a big stick on the beach. Jeff later saw woman in a car searching for a run away pit bull and told her of the vicious attack. He believes that she was an out of townner.

This is the second time Billy was attacked; EJ's awful young pit bull was the first. So here is the solution. KEEP YOUR PIT BULLS ON A LEASH AT ALL TIMES. Or maybe just keep them at home where their owners will all testify that they are all sweet pussycats. Yeah, right.
