RED FLAG WARNING

The National Weather Service has issued a Red Flag Warning beginning tonight at 5pm through tomorrow night at 11pm.

We are expecting higher winds in the mountain areas, lower winds closer to sea level. Despite the lower winds, vegetation in Bolinas is extremely dry.

Be extremely careful and be prepared. According to the weather service the coastal areas could start seeing some moisture in the air soon.

If you have not registered at ALERT MARIN.ORG for emergency alerts, please do so.

Stay safe

IT'S "BACK TO SCHOOL" TIME.

Bolinas-Stinson School buses and students are back on the roads. Students are frequently walking along the side of the road, riding their bikes and waiting for buses

Please watch carefully for children near school buildings, in areas where school buses are traveling or where there are signs for school zones or bus stops.

Remember that if you are approaching a school bus from either the front or behind, and its yellow lights are flashing, the bus is preparing to stop.

If the buses red lights are flashing, YOU MUST STOP for the safety of the children & because it's the law!

This includes school buses that are:

- on the opposite sides of divided highways,
- on multiple lane roadways,
- in parking lots,
- on school grounds.

NOTE: Extra CHP and Sherriff patrols have been requested on the road by the Stinson Beach Campus

"WHY WE COME"

Free Film/Food Event BCC

Sunday, Oct. 22 4-6pm

Why would anyone leave his/her home country, land, family, community, ancestor place to go to an unknown country? Many of us think we know the answer, but in fact, it may be more complicated .

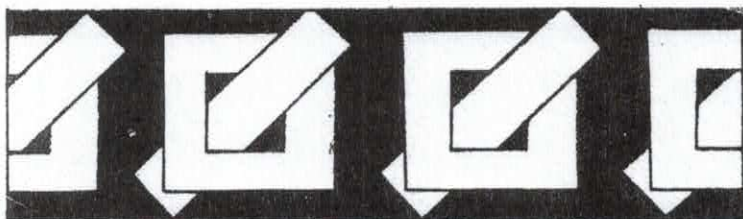

I remember in 1994 when the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) was put in place and American trade with Mexico and other Latin American was affected. For one, subsidized GMO corn from the US flooded the markets in Latin America and rural farmers could no longer sell their corn. Many were forced to leave their villages to support their families.

In an attempt to build deeper understanding in our village, On Sunday, Oct. 22 we are showing the film "Porque Venimos" (Why We Come) which features immigrants sharing their stories. The film is bilingual and well done.

Please invite friends and neighbors – anglo and latino to this important gathering. There will be food and discussion. Many have asked what they can do at this time to protect our immigrant neighbors. Come and find out.

Most importantly, this is an opportunity to strengthen ties in our beautiful community . We hope to see you at this celebration.

BENEFIT FOR THE COMMUNITY CENTER

BIG, COLORFUL SHOW
AT AROMA CAFE

Many of you know that Judy and I are movie buffs.

We often go to see the fine films shown at the Rafael Theater in San Rafael, and when we do, we often eat at the nextdoor Aroma Cafe, where the food is quite good, healthy, and reasonably priced.

The Aroma has a very long brick wall, ideal for showing large paintings. So when we learned that there was an opening to show during the Mill Valley Film Festival, when many art patrons would be stopping for a bite before or after movies, we took the opportunity.

It is a rare chance to exhibit in a space big enough to show some of Judy's very large dance paintings--like the multi-canvas series, 32 feet long, inspired by Bolinas street dances.

It's an impressive, big, colorful show. Be sure to stop by the Aroma if you're headed to a movie at the Rafael.

Wednesday we went with Ilka Hartmann to see a Festival movie that featured many of her photographs--"Mankiller", about Wilma Mankiller, the first woman chief of the Sioux Nation. A nice combination of entertainments.

Dale Polissar

(P.S. "Mankiller" will be shown again tomorrow--I think at noon, but you better check.)

MEETING TO DISCUSS FUTURE OF
COLLEGE OF MARIN PROPERTY ON WHARF ROAD

The Marine Biology Lab on Wharf Road is owned by the College of Marin, as well as the dock across the road on the lagoon. The college has been unable to use the lab for over ten years due to hazardous conditions, and legal restrictions prevent its rehabilitation by the college. Members of our community have expressed an interest in the community acquiring the property, and toward that end the BCPUD has formed a committee to develop proposals for how the property and dock are owned and managed, what it will cost for rehabilitation, and what uses can be made. The committee is composed of Ralph Camiccia, Arianne Dar, Eric Karpeles, Mindy Marin, Jennie Pfeiffer, Michael Rafferty, Jack Siedman, Melinda Stone and Kirsten Walker.

On October 18, 2017, Supervisor Rodoni and representatives of the College of Marin will hold a community meeting at 6:00 p.m. at the Bolinas Firehouse meeting room to learn whether the community is interested in acquiring the property. Members of our local committee will also be there. Your input is welcome.

READING TO JOHN

On Tues. Oct. 16 at 10 am on KWMR (89.) I'll read two stories from James Joyce's Dubliners, both about the snares of love and life. In one a boy is transfixed by a neighbor, in another a young woman is torn between freedom and duty. I'll end with reviews.

Friday 12 - 5 PM • Roadside In Our Field

GRAB
AND GO

A 'go bag' can make all the difference
in an emergency.
Here's how to be ready to run at a moment's notice

1 BASIC ELECTRONICS

Pack an extra phone charger in case you're fortunate enough to have electricity, and a portable battery pack in case you're not. Also stash a long-lasting LED flashlight. Pack a small hand-cranked or battery-operated AM/FM radio (with extra batteries).

2 PERSONAL NEEDS

While getting ready for a typical day, list every toiletry you use, then buy a travel-size version of each. Pack backup eyeglasses, as well as a first-aid kit, baby wipes, and a multipurpose tool with a knife and can opener.

3 CLOTHING

Pack a few days' worth. Include layers you can add or remove, plus lightweight rain gear and waterproof boots.

4 YOUR MEDS

Pack about three days' worth of each of your prescriptions. If you need larger items, such as an oxygen tank, make sure you have a portable version.

5 CASH

In addition to enough money for a few days, include small bills and a roll of quarters. If you need to buy something out of a vending machine, you don't want to start asking equally desperate strangers for

7 PAPERWORK

Fill a zip-top waterproof bag with photocopies of your birth certificate; driver's license; Social Security and Medicare cards; power of attorney and will; any marriage, adoption or naturalization certificates; proof of address; insurance, medical and immunization records; and information about your credit and ATM cards.

6 FOOD AND DRINK

Bottled water is essential. Granola or energy bars are great because they are small and filling, and they come in a variety of flavors.

8 THE PERFECT BAG

Think small and portable. A backpack is ideal, but a lightweight suitcase with wheels will also do. Just remember, you may literally be running with it.

BY JEFF ROSSEN

Recent natural catastrophes, from hurricanes to western wildfires, are a fresh reminder that disaster can strike at any time. And no area of the country is immune, when you factor in the threat of tornadoes, earthquakes and human disasters like toxic spills. While the circumstances may differ, there's one tip that every person needs to take from all these situations: how to pack a "go bag."

A go bag is a packed case that you grab on your way out the door, and that will help keep you safe and comfortable in the coming hours and days. Stopping to hunt for your medications or other important needs can cost you critical seconds in an evacuation.

Pack a separate go bag for yourself and every member of your household, and keep them stored in the same location.

The Village Elliott: 10/10/17

Grand Stinson Beach Lady
Some locals called “Shady,”
While other, like me, thought “The Best”
Once gutted by fire,
Held on by desire
Till yesterday’s winds downed the rest.
Been over a decade
Since Great Fire had made
“Burnt Legend of Local Renown,”
Truly proud I can say
I was last there to stay
Left three years before what’s left fell down.
Owned by Family Lacaze
Ghosts of Old Shady Days
Have long haunted both their house and land
Three there passed from this side,
Where they long did reside
There others, like me, took Last Stand.
Now it’s Tigger and me
Last cat born at Shady,
Who left last proud we called Shady home
Now that she has blown down
“Shady Rest of Renown”

Eulogized her in respectful poem.

West Marin Standing Together Benefit
Featuring Will Durst 10/14/2017 - 7:00pm

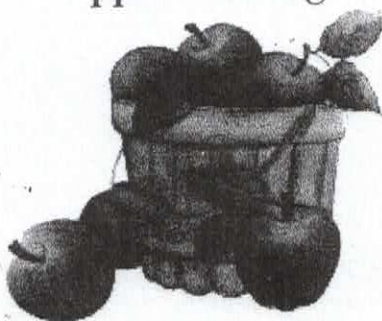

Will Durst is an American political satirist; he has been called a modern mix of Mort Sahl and Will Rogers. He provides much needed levity in these stressful times. Durst presents his new solo outing "Durst Case Scenario," a hysterical exploration of the changes in America during the Time of Trump. In this lightning-paced, comedic tour-de-force, Durst, described by the New York Times as "possibly the best political comic working today," analyzes where we are, how we got here and what possible destinations lie ahead. Along with analyzing the altered political landscape, he also details the wacky zany antics, palace intrigues and potholes and pitfalls of polarization that threaten our country, hemisphere, planet, solar system and universe, in this, The New Abnormal. Equal parts comedy and therapy, the intrepid Dr. Durst assists audiences in overcoming their PTSD: President Trump Stress Disorder, by surgically isolating the farcical and sticking pins into the ludicrous. For sufferers who never thought they'd laugh again, this show is the perfect prescription. Contact Bing Gong for additional information: binggong@sonic.net or call (415)766-1439.
