FUN FARM FAMILY DAY
Bolinas Museum Courtyard
Saturday, October 15 1-4 PM
FREE and fun for all ages.

In the spirit of the Bolinas Museum's BOUNTY! program celebrating fine food production in coastal Marin, join us for hands-on learning and creativity! People from outstanding education organizations are coming to share their enthusiasm and knowledge. Slide Ranch will have us all making fresh butter from cream, to eat on Bovine Bakery bread with Susan Martinelli's hand made jam from her Creekside Garden in Paradise Valley. Mark Butler could use your help pressing fresh apple juice for us. Mimi Luebberrmann of Wind Rush Farm will bring sheep fleeces and everyone can learn to spin a wool bracelet. Blake Miller and Tyler Thayer of the Farm Fields Studies from Agricultural Institute of Marin will offer eco-creative activities. Janis Yerington is bringing her sociable chickens. John Glavis and chef Dave Cook will be there! Join us for this wonderful family / community event!

Last minute note: Check with us. We hope the rain won't force us to cancel this event. Hold off the rain until its over!

Deer hit and run this AM on Terrace just down from our house. No one stopped. A local neighbor came out to get wood and found her flailing. He got her out of the road protecting her with garbage cans around her and called the humane society.

She had to be put down.

Please make a plea for people to SLOW DOWN!! The Humane Society Officer said as she was tending to the injured animal "I didn't realize how fast people drive on this road".

Thank God it wasn't a child.

Kathie Hart

Oh my! The Bouquets at the Book Exchange feel very celebratory this week. The national spotlight focused with sudden intensity on why women are saying "equal means equal". Now it seems that last Weds Hearsay's hopeful statements re woman's rights, such as to their own bodies and to being paid fairly, are soooooo being echoed in the zeitgeist... yes!

Thinking of going solar? Tune in to the Rise & Shine Show on Tues morning as Mary and Amber interview guest Darren Malvin of American Solar. American Solar was founded in Bolinas over a decade ago by brothers Darren and Scott Malvin and their father, Ian Cracknell. Over the years, they have installed solar for over one hundred homes in West Marin, as well as many public buildings, including the Bolinas School and Firehouse, and the Tomales and Stinson Water Districts.

American Solar's motto: "Clean Energy For Life."

LETS REVIVE HALLOWEEN ON THE MESA!!!!

We all know that downtown, where all the kids gather for trick or treating, is full of empty houses. So we are thinking to revive an area on the Mesa where they could walk, Aspen through Maple, off Elm.

If you'd like to see the great kids of Bo in their costumes trick or treating, please put a pumpkin out!! Then they'll know you want them to stop by. Please call ChouChou with any questions. 868-2771 - Thanks!!

"PLUTOCRACY", THE MUSICAL TO DEBUT IN BOLINAS

Coming up next week: the premier of my new musical show, "Plutocracy"--Friday night, Oct. 21, in Bolinas, and Sunday night, Oct. 23, at the Point Reyes Dance Palace.

The fine six-member cast features two Bolinas people: that classy songstress Beth Carusillo plays the hero's feisty girlfriend, and Bob Scott--he of the deep sonorous voice!--is the show's narrator. (Bob is also very funny as a conservative Southern senator.)

Also in the cast: Daniel Patrick, the Stinson impressario, whom many of you know from Common Voice Choir; Tim Mayer of San Francisco, who was a favorite in my previous musical show, "By George, It's War!" (satirizing the Bush administration); an amazing operatic tenor, Peter Webb of San Leandro; and the soulful contralto Madeline London of San Rafael.

Almost three years in the writing, "Plutocracy" pits a young hippy poet against a giant global oil corporation.

Choreography is by the popular Marin choreographer and dance teacher Doree Clark, who choreographed "By George, It's War!"

I'm pleased to be making Bolinas the premier of this show, which will also play in Berkeley at La Pena, and in San Francisco at the Noe Valley Ministry.

From Vickisa: An interesting SF DAY and Paul Mann going to Vietnam with Habitat for Humanity and I am doing Open Studio 11 to 5 Nov. 24,25,26

I had Paul Mann on my radio show, Coastal Airwaves on KWMR Thursday, September 29. Plumber by trade, long time Bolinas resident, Warren Hellmann's barn bitch, recent Habitat for Humanity's volunteer, announcer for the main Banjo stage at Hardly Strictly Bluegrass festival (which just happened and was phenomenal) and the Mann Barn events. It was his 74th Birthday on that day and I thought we had an really good conversation. We talked about his going to Vietnam for the second time with Habitat for Humanity if you want to hear it go to KWMR.org <<http://KWMR.org>> archives look for Vickisa. I am writing this because Paul is having a go fund me campaign for the Habitat project in Vietnam and I just wanted to share that with you. If anybody wants to help send this great man to volunteer his talents and time to Habitat for Humanity's. To help send him off here's how you do it.... GoFundMe Paul Mann or <https://www.gofundme.com/2mr28yvg>

On Monday morning I left the house at 4:45 AM to go cook food on Indigenous Peoples' Day for members of the Native American community and their large support team of swimmers and boaters etc. who participated in a swim from Alcatraz Island to the South End Rowing Club, San Francisco. This was the 14th annual PATHSTAR Alcatraz Swim Week. PATHSTAR is a year-round program to educate about and encourage wholesome nutrition and a stay-active lifestyle among American Indians and Alaska Natives. They came from South Dakota, Washington and California tribal communities and far to participate. See: <http://www.pathstar.org>

It was very moving and so much fun to bring my chard from Bolinas and cook it up with the rest of the healthy food they provided and share it with the people that had actually gotten in that cold water and made it all the way back. They were really remarkable and I won't forget it. One swimmer toughed it out for two hours and made it back with cramping legs.

Then (the end of healthy food) and I actually went to Ghirardelli Square across the street past the cable car stop, and had the amazing hot fudge sundae of my youth. Not proud of this but truth is truth and it is still as good.

After that I went to a place that makes glasses for under $300. I am in a desperate search for new glasses. don't ask.

Then on to the new SF MOMA for the first time. Really I have been remiss it's amazing I mean it's huge exhausting I have to tell you after that I am is dropped but I made it home and I felt really good.

I will actually be doing Open Studio 11 to 5 Nov. 24,25,26 I would really love to see you here.
