A FABULOUS DAY!

The Bolinas Fire Protection District held our Annual Fire Safety Day on Sunday, October 21st. If you couldn't make it, here's what you missed: Four different helicopters landed through out the day, providing information on their services and thrilling us with a long line rescue demonstration, Fire King Fire Protection provided extinguisher servicing, Richard Dillman, KWMR Transmitter Wrangler, provided tours of the emergency communications van, Vickisa was very busy helping residents create much needed, artistic address signs, Beth Carusillo, Care Manager, West Marin Senior Services, provided information on support available for seniors and people with disabilities, the fire department taught folks how to extinguish a kitchen fire during a very exciting demonstration as well as provided delicious food and never ending engine rides.

A big thank you to all who visited us and our volunteer firefighters for working all day to make it a success.

A special thank you goes out to Barbara Kayfetz who graciously presented the District with a book of beautiful pictures from the day.

We hope to see you all next year!

Anita Tyrrell-Brown
Fire Chief

VOTE YES ON MEASURE E
Mesa Park belongs to all of us

Every town needs a place to play: toddlers, kids, teens, and adults all benefit from outdoor exercise and activities. Support for Measure E means support for sports, fun, a good work out, a gathering place that helps to build strong bodies and community spirit. For less than a dollar per week per improved parcel ($49/year) Measure E keeps our playing fields playable and their support systems functional. Measure E provides local jobs as well.

Next Tuesday, vote YES on Measure E.

Funding from Measure E is only for maintenance of the property at 110 Mesa Road, by the Firehouse. The downtown park is privately funded, and any future swimming pool will be supported by user fees.

"THERE'S A GOOD TIME IN THE OLD TOWN"

November 10th @ the Community Center, beginning at 8:00 pm when a bunch of good friends are working together to put on a "home town" version of a Cabaret. This is a benefit for Mary and Magi, due to Mary's recent health issues and their many out-of-pocket expenses. A fine roster of entertainment will be offered at the Cabaret with the following:

- Jan Broek
- Hozanna & Vince, Bob, Annie, Amanda & Sara Winfield, (Mary & Magi's Grandson) with his friends, Aboudy, & Elliot
- Charlie D., Jeff (Commons), Magi, & Perry (Singing some nostalgic tunes from the "old" Music Club)
- Jeff Manson
- Bobo Tempo

$10 minimum

Come celebrate with us for a good cause!

YES ON MEASURE E

We are big supporters of Mesa Park. Since its inception, Mesa Park has provided recreational facilities for our entire community. All of the projects at Mesa Park have originated locally. The soccer field, the Paul Ryan little league field, the children's play ground, the skate park, and the basketball court were envisioned, designed and built by local volunteer citizens who care about our community's health and welfare. The Park hosts the free food give away every Sunday, and any number of birthday parties all year long.

The park, situated on Mesa Road, is beautifully maintained and it's important for it to stay that way: Grass mowed and trash removed. The parcel tax of $49 comes to less than $1 per week. Join us in voting YES on E and keep Mesa Park a beautiful place.

-Mary and Jack Siedman

Take the back roads from Bolinas on Saturday, November 3 to EarthRise Center at IONS (south of Petaluma), and enjoy Carol Duchamp's opening reception. On view will be 22 watercolor and acrylic paintings on paper. This celebratory event will be held at EarthRise from 3-5 pm, Sat, Nov 3.

Head north to Olema, take a right on Sir Francis Drake, and left to Petaluma past the Cheese Factory, McEvoy Ranch and white school house. Just after the schoolhouse look for San Antonio Creek and take a right on beautiful San Antonio Road. Take a right where San Antonio dead ends, and your first right after that through the gates and uphill to the retreat center.

See you there!

AT THE COMMUNITY CENTER

Friday November 2, 12 noon – midnight
 Dia de los Muertos

Pozole & Mexican Hot Chocolate

You are invited to the celebration of a traditional Latin American holiday that combines pre-Colombian festivals and indigenous traditions with European rituals for honoring the dead. It is celebrated every year at this same time as Halloween and the Christian holy days of All Saints Day and All Souls Day. In homes, families arrange "ofrendas" or altars. Tables are covered with fruit, flowers, vegetables, bread, candy, candles, incense; photos of the deceased, papel picado (paper cut-outs) represent the sky. Marigold petals are sprinkled to create a path for the spirits to follow on their return.

Those interested in helping to create our village altar will meet and continue set-up after 1pm. Photos of those who have passed over are invited along with mementos and flowers.

On Friday, "Dia de los Muertos", the BCC will be open from noon to midnight. Mirta is making traditional pozole and Mexican chocolate. This day is not a sad time, but one rather of remembering and rejoicing. Musicians are welcome. Please join us for any or all of the celebration you can.

bringing order to your financial world

Some of you may know this already but I recently broke my big toe. I mean I really broke my toe. This was no "oh just buddy tape it and get on with your day" kind of break, but a lacerated, open-fractured, majorly broken big toe. And a big pain in the you know what as well. I wish that I had a great story to back it up. Something like, "I was walking the dog and had to fend off a mountain lion" or "I got into a fight at the bar with my former best friend", but really I was just walking in my living room and tripped on my dog. Sad but true. In any case, I have spent the last 6 weeks in an ornately Velcro encased "boot" and have wobbled around town famously. It's been oh so fun.

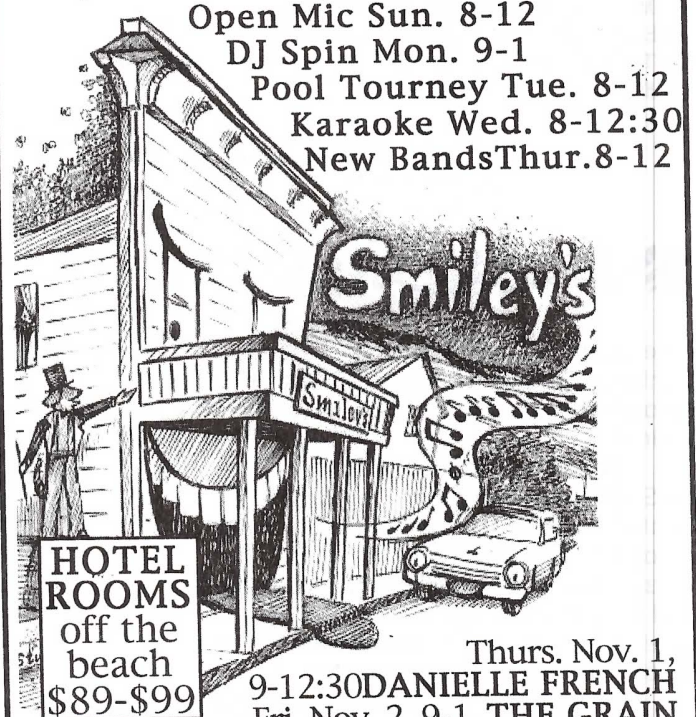

One of the main things that I have been thinking about is the fact that the Bolinas Stinson Beach School Foundation is hosting it's annual Barn Dance on November 9th and my gol-darned foot is going to really muck things up for me! It's really not that easy to square dance in a "boot". Believe me, I've tried. So, I counted backwards and forwards and figured out that November 8th was just about the time that I could officially take that puppy off (I may have been wearing regular shoes the past few days, but if you tell my podiatrist, I will deny it), and I am going to, if not dance, at least step to the music. Maybe walking the do-si-do will be all the rage... who knows.

But You! You likely do not have a broken toe and therefore you are likely not wearing the "boot" and you CAN come and dance your little tootsies off at the fabulous Barn Dance. So, in honor of my toe, you have to come on down to the Bolinas Community Center between 6 and 10pm on Friday, November 9th to dance your heart out!

Dia de los muertos
at the Community Center

If you haven't stopped in yet to see the alters at the Community Center - Friday is the last day, but it's open till midnight and it's free.

Mirta Guzman and her helpers have made a beautiful presentation using her heritage and fine eye to make a joyful remembrance of those who have left this world. There is also themed artwork done by our local students. You can stay as long as you like, taking in the lovely colors and reading the collection of Hearsays that celebrate past lives.

There will also be pazole (soup) tonight, and I know that Mirta cooks with as much care as she presents her cultural heritage. So please stop by.
