From Anne Owen regarding "The Enlightened States of America" published in the Hearsay 11/7/12:

"Here is what one of the evolved and wiser, next generation of my family wrote in response:

'On a surface level, i chuckled at this email.

i know i can be overly sensitive and frequently play the devil's advocate in an annoying kinda way, but i gotta say, i thought this (article) was really terrible. there are definitely some horrible ideas that come out of red states, especially "legitimate rape." however, some of the most impressive organizing, courage and resistance to racism, poverty, and environmental destruction that our country has ever seen has come out of the South. The rest of the US could learn some lessons from the sharp movement building that happened during the civil rights movement, the environmental movement around mountain top removal, and the right of return of New Orleans residents after hurricane katrina, to just name a few.

Oops!

In Wednesday's Hearsay I wrote about the unveiling of my painting "Peace, Love, Bolinas" I put the wrong day in What's Happening.

The Unveiling will happen on Sunday, Nov. 11 at noon at the new downtown park.

The painting "Peace, Love, Bolinas" is of the new park filled with people, animals and mythic figures.

The painting is painted in "psychedelic style."
Come see what that means.

KRONOS QUARTET

For nearly 40 years, the Kronos Quartet—David Harrington, John Sherba (violins), Hank Dutt (viola), and Jeffrey Zeigler (cello)—has pursued a singular artistic vision, combining a spirit of fearless exploration with a commitment to expanding the range and context of the string quartet. In 2011, Kronos became the only recipients of both the Polar Music Prize and the Avery Fisher Prize, two of the most prestigious awards given to musicians. Other awards include a Grammy for Best Chamber Music Performance (2004) and Musicians of the Year (2003) from Musical America.

SUZANNE CIANI PIANO CONCERT

Five-time Grammy nominee (New Age) Suzanne Ciani will perform her original compositions for solo piano, including her signature song, "The Velocity of Love." Ciani moved to Bolinas from New York City to concentrate on her artistic career and establish her own indie music label, Seventh Wave, after years on major labels (Sony, BMG, RCA, and Atlantic). She is best loved for her original music featuring her performances in a broad array of expressions: pure electronic; solo piano; piano with orchestra; and piano with jazz ensemble. No matter the medium, Ciani's music communicates the special intimacy, passion, and sensitivity that have become her trademark and prompted fans to buy more than one million of her albums.

SPIRIT HOUSE

It's the time of year to gather together 7 people who are willing to tend the Spirit House for 2013. Each tender cleans and decorates the space about every two months. The space is tended every week including providing flowers or a centerpiece and watering the living plants and tree there. This is a great gift to ourselves and the community. Call June @ 9052 or email me at junemcadams@gmail.com if you are able to be part of this team. Thanks, June McAdams

THANKSGIVING DINNER

The time for Giving Thanks is near, Randi & Lia will be coordinating the famous Potluck Dinner at the Community Center this year.

We are planning to start the dinner at 5pm (instead of 6pm) this year, so please make sure to bring your lovely potluck foods (with utensils) by 4:30pm so we can start on time.

We have already found five turkey cookers, but we still need four more. John & Samara are graciously donating 9 turkeys for the Dinner and we just need people to pick up the turkeys and cook em! Also, on Thanksgiving Day we need help in the kitchen cooking, setting-up the buffet, eating the delicious dinner, breaking down and the cleanup. Please call 868-2128 if you can help out.

There are cans going out to the Hardware Store and John's Store in case you want to make a donation for the dinner.

Looking forward to another beautiful event at the Bolinas Community Center and for giving thanks to the beautiful peaceful place that we live in called Bolinas.

YEAR-END WRAP-UP BOLINAS COMMUNITY SLIDESHOW COMING UP 12/22/2012

In the spirit of year-end slide shows of yore that local photographers Ilka Hartmann and Barbara Kayfetz have put together in the past, I'm organizing a casual evening of image sharing and story swapping this December.

As long as we aren't annihilated or transmuted beyond the physical realm on the solstice the night before, I think it would be great to get together around the fireplace in our Community Center on Saturday the 22nd to eat some dinner (I'll cook), have some libations (BCC will provide a bar) & hoot & holler as we watch a slideshow of events, people & sights of the past year.

To participate, submit high-resolution versions your best, most beautiful, strangest, funniest or otherwise engaging photos of Bolinas people & things in 2012 to bolinasslideshow@gmail.com. If you need help, let me know. Everyone is invited! I want to keep this egalitarian and fun.

More details soon!

Thanks- Jeff Manson

the comment about ivy league schools and red states only getting "Ole Miss" assumes that everyone with a southern accent is stupid and it is a jab at poor people who don't have an equal playing field to go to elite colleges. also, what about Spelman college, the historically black women's college, and Emory?

coming from a family that has experienced multiple divorces and separations, i think we are happier because of what we have been through!! i am very happy in my family, we really love each other, get to be our true selves, and have worked together to sort through some real challenges.

single moms are bad-asses and deserve an incredible amount of respect and admiration.

i'm not too thrilled about the superficial images that come out of hollywood that promote materialism, individualism and body-hatred.

and so many of the leftists i meet are on some high horses and think their morals are better than anyone else's and refuse to hear any contradicting ideas.

having said that, our beaches and Yosemite are incredible, and we do have really good...

just sayin'. we gotta come together.

love to you all!!!

Andrea Camuto Photographer of Women and Families in Afghanistan Interviewed on KWMR 89.9
 Saturday September 10, 9-10AM

Andrea Camuto's powerful photographs are currently on display at the Bolinas Museum. (This is the last weekend.) Her images bring us the women and families behind newspaper headlines about the war in Afghanistan. Her own courage and passion are impressive as she returned over many years, to war torn Afghanistan and reconnected with Afghani women she met on her first trip, tracking them to barren refugee camps, hospitals and prisons. She says, "As my ties with these families deepened... each trip furthered my understanding of the political and social complexities of Afghan culture. In these photographs I call attention to ordinary Afghans, who go unnoticed and unrecorded in the larger narrative of the conflict in Afghanistan today."

Granddaughter of Italian immigrants
 Camuto has a deep empathy for people displaced by circumstances and has been on photo assignment to many nations such as Burma, India and Mali. She will be the guest on Elia Haworth's radio show Original Minds this Saturday at 9AM.
