"If You're Gonna Play In Texas (You Gotta Have a Fiddle in the Band)" proclaims the 1984 Billboard Hot Country Single #1 song. Also a gifted mandolin and guitar player, Sprouse is at home in bluegrass, blues, swing, jazz, and folk. With his return to the stage, Blaine's heart is answering the fiddler's call. Saturday April 12 / 2PM / Free

Walter Kitundu, a former Bolinas resident, is most well known as the inventor of a family of Phonoharps, multi-stringed instruments made from record players that rely on the turntable's sensitivity to vibration.

As an artist he has created hand-built record players powered by the wind and rain, fire, birds, light, and ocean waves, for which he received a MacArthur Fellowship in 2008. As a musician, he has collaborated with such renowned musicians as the Kronos Quartet in venues worldwide, including Carnegie Hall.

Come celebrate National Poetry Month at the Bolinas Library this Tuesday, April 15th with a special evening of readings by 3 Notable Bolinas Poets: Joanne Kyger, Jim Nisbet & Tobi Earnheart-Gold.

Tobi, who grew up in Bolinas, is a Stanford grad & has recently returned from living in Berlin. Jim is a mystery writer who has been translating Baudelaire lately. And Joanne, our much beloved, highly accomplished local poet, Hearsay Editor & teacher, will be sure to captivate.

The event is free, starts at 7 pm & there will be tea.

to burn when it dries

HAPPY LOCALS ON
BO FOOD BANK DAY
(Thursdays 11:45 - 12:45)

FOOD BANK AT THE BCC

Every Thursday the Bolinas Community hosts a food bank. The SF Marin food bank (sfmfoodbank.org) is the wonderful organization that trucks in thousands of pounds of food, donated by growers, individuals and groceries. Besides feeding hungry people, this program also keeps food from being wasted by distributing just outdated food, and food frozen at expiration date. They are happy to accept donations and volunteers, see web address above.

June McAdams arrives early and makes sure everything is set up. Every Thursday six people can sign up to help unload the truck, 9:30am is the time to do this. These people must be able to lift 35 to 50 pounds as vegetable come in big heavy bags. As a thank you for the hard work of unloading and unpacking these six people are allowed to shop for their box of food.

The other two or three volunteers continue to organize, to make shopping quicker for those who are waiting in line, refill bins during shopping and help clean up.

The line usually begins to form by 10:00 am, so if you want to be at the front of the line, you better get there early. You will have to sign in to shop. There are about 5 handicapped people who shop before the official opening at 12:00 noon. That noon time opening is to give us enough time to unload and set up. At the beginning the truck sometimes came late, and we needed that time. The truck is pretty regular now and if we are all set up we open 15 minutes early at 11:45 am.

Everyone who comes, leaves with fresh fruit and vegetables, bread sometimes sweets and packaged food, sometimes yogurt or eggs, and occasionally meat. I know for some people this program makes a big contribution to their food needs.

We are all grateful this program exists in Bolinas.

- Kathleen O'Neill, volunteer

Preparation Time:
about 2 hours,
including baking

1 9-inch pie

(... with Grated Potato Crust)

- Crust: 2 cups, packed, grated raw potato
1/2 tsp. salt
1 egg, beaten
1/4 cup grated onion

Heat oven to 400°

Set the freshly-grated potato in a colander over a bowl. Salt it and leave it for 10 minutes. Then squeeze out the excess water (which can be used for soup stock) and add it to the remaining ingredients. Pat it into a well-oiled 9-inch pie pan, building up the sides of the crust with lightly-floured fingers. Bake for 40-45 minutes - until browned. After the first 30 minutes brush the crust with a little oil to crispen it.

Turn oven down to 375°.

- Filling: 1 heaping, packed cup grated cheddar cheese
1 medium cauliflower, broken into small flowerets
1 medium clove crushed garlic
1 cup chopped onion
3 Tbs. butter
dash of thyme
1/2 tsp. basil
1/2 tsp. salt
2 eggs } beaten together
1/4 cup milk }
black pepper
paprika

Saute onions and garlic, lightly salted, in butter for 5 minutes. Add herbs and cauliflower and cook, covered, 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. Spread half the cheese into the baked crust, then the saute', then the rest of the cheese. Pour the custard over and dust with paprika. Bake 35-40 minutes - until set.

There has been a lot of conversation in town in the last week about the graffiti on the walls at the beach entrance at the end of Brighton Avenue being painted over with ugly white paint. I was told that the person who erased the graffiti is herself an artist who feels that graffiti is an "urban" art form and is not appropriate for Bolinas. The walls at the end of Brighton are owned and maintained by the BCPUD and apparently they were not consulted or asked permission before the white paint was slapped on.

I want to voice my support for the graffiti artists - whether they are local or come from afar. The sea walls in Bolinas are vibrant with some of the best graffiti in the Bay Area. It is one of the few places that graffiti artists can practice their art form without the threat of arrest and possible jail time. Graffiti is a youthful art form. Most young artists, let alone older artists, do not have the resources, exposure or opportunity to show their work in galleries and museums. The sea walls in town are their canvas.

I am always amazed at the quality of work I see when I walk on the beach and have also noticed that the artists are respectful and do not paint where property owners have asked them not to paint - on the upper portions of the sea walls. How sad that someone feels they need to prohibit this vibrant and youthful form of expression. I was complaining to a friend in an email today, just days after I had photographed my favorite graffiti on the beach and sent it to him. I thought my friend's response illustrated the utter absurdity of the situation:

"OMG!!! The whole thing is kind of funny because 1) Robert Ryman is known for "white only" paintings, (which paintings of course outrage some people as "sacrilege" themselves), and 2) "Going over" other peoples work is a tradition in graffiti, 3) She has no permission from the owner. So, which "side" is she on? That crazy woman needs to move to Rohnert Park. They will love her and she and her neighbors can take turns cleaning the clear plastic slipcovers on each other's furniture."

So how is this painter of white walls any different from the graffiti artists whose work she has covered up? The only difference I can see is that it is so much uglier and boring now. Graffiti on the sea walls is one of the things that makes Bolinas a place I want to live - here is to hoping some of your young artists "go over" this white graffiti in the coming days.
