READING TO JOHN

On Tues. 6/19 at 10 am on KWMR (89.) I'll read Molly Giles's "Cruise Control." Kim's leaving home, at last. But is she ready, a mess at 20? Was her mother Barbara ready when she had Kim at age 20 herself? Over a coffee shop table they replay their complex relationship. I'll also finally share a batch of reviews.

Andy Pilara has accrued an exceptional collection of fine art photography, the oldest work from 1830 to world renowned contemporary photographers. In order to display this remarkable collection, Pilara converted a 2,800 sq ft warehouse under the Bay Bridge into a vast gallery space, strictly allowing visitors by appointment only. The beautiful exhibition space is quiet and contemplative, inviting the viewer to fully experience each photograph.

HOW TO PLACE AN AD IN THE HEARSAY

Come to the office at 270 Elm at Maple behind the BPUD office on a Monday, Wednesday or Friday morning 9-11am. Your ad will appear the same day! Ad forms are also available in the small mailbox next to the Hearsay Door. Fill out the form, enclose payment (please indicate you have enclosed payment in case they become separated) & drop in door slot.

HEARSAY ADS WORK!

When StuArt pulled up in the plaza with a load of turf on the roof of his pickup Wednesday I figured it was just another zany performance piece but it turns out there was a bit of leftover green from the downtown park project which he managed to score to help out our sorry looking patch of scrub behind the community center. It was fun to take breaks from behind the counter at the People's Store and watch different folks from our community jump in and lend a hand; Arn, Al and Steve Wren all were busy tearing up the old lawn, Barb showed up in a back hoe with a pile of compost, various other folks lent hands, opined, cracked jokes and got sweaty and before you knew it, we had a new little verge, green enough to make Tiger Woods jealous. Croquet anyone?
