Tess Felix: Portraits in Beach Plastic
Opening Reception at Stinson Beach Gallery
July 21 2-5 PM

music by This Old Earthquake
 Stinson Beach Gallery director Brita Dorst Gemmo presents an exhibition of Portraits in Beach Plastic by Stinson artist Tess Felix (Grreene). Her nudes and portraits are amazing for their painterly sophistication, clever use of plastic detritis washed up on three of our local beaches and the attention she brings to an environmental crises.

Tess is a professional hair and make-up artist for the SF Opera, Broadway productions and movies being made in the Bay Area and local clientele. She is also an artist whose work ranges from wild creations for Burning Man to oil painting. Tess grew up in Marin and she and her husband Sean raised their children in Stinson/Bolinas.

Brita Dorst Gemmo lived in Italy for 25 years. When she moved back to the Bay Area, Brita took over the front section of Claudia Chaplin's Gallery on HWY 1, turning it into Stinson Beach Gallery. Brita has shown mostly Coast Marin and Bay Area artists. But coming up is an exhibition exchange with her gallery connections in Italy. She will present her selection of Bay Area artists to Italy, and bring us surprising work from contemporary Italian artists. Please join Tess, Brita and friends for a lively opening reception on Saturday, 2-5 PM

In conversation with
Eric Karpeles

Michael Tilson Thomas

Just recently becoming the longest-reigning conductor in the San Francisco Symphony's 100-year history, Michael Tilson Thomas repeatedly leads performances of intensely powerful music-making in programs full of emotional depth and staggering clarity. The orchestra is playing with virtuosic ebullience these days and the term "golden era" has been increasingly used to describe the institution's current state of being. The New School at Commonweal is very happy to present this conversation between San Francisco Symphony Music Director Michael Tilson Thomas and Commonweal Board Member Eric Karpeles. Informal and wide-ranging, the conversation will be accessible to music-lovers of all degrees, and in keeping with Commonweal's ongoing commitment to exploring the role of healing and the arts.
