The BAZAAR: An Afternoon of Art & Craft
Curated by Thayer Gowdy of Native Daughter
Bolinas Museum Courtyard
Saturday August 5th, 2-5 PM ~ Free Entry

The current Bolinas Museum program Counter-Culture & Creativity focused on the 1960s & 70s, inspired this Bazaar that presents a small selection of both fine craft masters and new makers with a wonderful array of goods for you to experience and purchase, including:

Mardi Wood ceramics: Bolinas master ceramicist known for elegant porcelain bowls, often decorated with Etruscan drawings inspired by her annual time in Italy.
Sacred Tide: Kelsey Kirsch grew up in Stinson Beach. She combines hand dyeing, screen-printing and up-cycling to make unique garments, accessories and home goods.
Zelma Rose: Handmade fiber macramé jewelry designed by fiber artist Lisa Anderson Shaffer of Marin County.
Schehera Van Dyk, who grew up in Bolinas, has been creating meticulously detailed hand-painted ceramic vessels for twenty-two years, along with painted textiles.
Benevolent Tide Club: A trio of creative women in San Francisco that include Salter Vintage, Mohinders (handcrafted) Shoes and Susan Hof who creates bags from reclaimed sails and horse harness.
Birdview Distillery: Handcrafted California fine brandy made of coastal California cactus fruit.
Locust House: Kurtis Major's custom jewelry design incorporates natural materials in the formal context of rectilinear design.
The Heart Way: Julie Alonso creates dreamcatchers, prayer arrows, wall art, and cards, along with vintage clothing and accessories.
Kelp Prairie: Lina Jane Prairie uses her biology expertise, artistry and a state harvesting license to create sculptural baskets from kelp and beach-collected materials.
Wilderness Workshop: Thayer Allyson Gowdy and her father share a passion for making stained glass works, leather stools and wooden plate ware.
Madime: Berkeley based fiber-maker creates handmade and hand-dyed macramé plant hangers and wall hangings.
Patricia Yenawine: Bolinas ceramicist who creates fine stoneware ceramics, primarily using anagama wood-firing and salt-glaze techniques.
Ashley Eva Brock: fashion designer & dyer, Brock presents hand-dyed one of a kind garments.
Charlie Callahan: offers his iconic sea urchin image in prints.
Live Music: Kurione: Local musicians Joe Armin (guitar) and Charlie Callahan (drums).
Kate & Andrew Sweeney: a husband and wife dreamy folk duo. Kate is also half of the musical group Magic Magic Roses.

Thayer Allyson Gowdy, professional photographer and director, coordinates Native Daughter as a collaborative creative workshop in Bolinas, hosting gallery shows, pop ups, exhibits, poetry readings, record & tea parties, rock trading and craft nights, along with creative classes on photography and portfolio editing.

WHITE ELEPHANT SILENT AUCTION

There are many ways to participate in Labor Day, but the silent auction is one of those great win win opportunities. The Community Center wins when there are great items to sell, as that helps us support all the wonderful classes and events that happen at the BCC. The donor wins by passing on some artifact that need to be released back to the community. Something way-to-nice to throw away, but for whatever reason (too full of memories or not enough time for your own garage sale) something you don't want to sell.

The white elephant always reminds me of Ganesha, the Hindu deity that has an elephant head, and multiple arms. Ganesha is the remover of obstacles. So if your stuff is weighing you down, bring the beautiful, useful, desirable items to the Community Center. We'll do our best to find someone who will love it.

P.S. Your donations are tax deductible, we'll be happy to give you a receipt.

Donation Drop off Times:

Patricia Whelpley Barton

March 16, 1950 – July 17, 2017

We are shocked and saddened to announce the unexpected passing of Pat Barton, age 67, 16 year resident of Bolinas, CA on July 17 due to a pulmonary embolism. Pat was born in Stamford, Connecticut to Gordon Brittain Whelpley and Emilie Iselin Whelpley. She is survived by her husband, Bill Barton, their two sons, Will and Sam, and siblings Katharine Draper, Anne Shaw, and Gordon Whelpley.

Born in Stamford, CT, Pat grew up in Darien. She graduated from the Thomas School, attended Garland Junior College and Boston University, and, following her great passion, went on to the Culinary Institute of America. She also trained at the Pacific Basin School of Textile Arts in Berkeley.

Pat moved to California in the early 1970's and lived in a unique mountain cabin off Panoramic. She was an avid textile weaver. She met Bill in the spring of 1977. They traveled together to Cowes, England as part of the support team of David Allen's legendary yacht Imp. Pat and Bill were married in 1981 in Darien and returned to live in Mill Valley. In 1986 they moved to Ross to raise their children.

Patty had unique culinary skills. She was assistant chef in several establishments before getting married, including the Mountain Home Inn. She was the ultimate homemaker and mother to her children and a huge supporter of her husband's interests and work. She had a heart of gold that touched all who knew her. She gave endlessly, selflessly, and enthusiastically to causes she loved and to people she cared about.

Pat volunteered continuously in the communities she lived in. She and Bill and their two sons moved to Bolinas in 2002, and for the last 8 years she had helped at the Bolinas library and was serving on the board of directors. Pat was an avid reader. She kept up with the news from all over the world and was outspoken about her liberal democratic political views, particularly with like-minded friends. She had a deep passion and curiosity for observing birds and wildlife in their habitats and volunteered as a docent for many years at Audubon Canyon Ranch. As a member of the Bolinas Rod and Boat Club, she could always be seen helping out at any event. Along with her husband, Pat was also a Briones Lions Club member. She loved her garden and taking care of her pets. All who knew her loved her. Her passing leaves a hole in many lives, and her wisdom and patience will be sorely missed.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation in her name to the Audubon Canyon Ranch (ACR), 4900 Shoreline Highway One, Stinson Beach, CA 94970. Thank you. A service will be held at St. Aidan's August 12 and all seats are taken due to big influx of east coast family. A celebration of her life will follow at their home at 6 pm and that is by invitation. If you are a dear friend of hers that I have overlooked to invite you, my apologies, as my world is upside down. Please RSVP to Bill at 8969 or better yet biobill@pacbell.net. A shuttle service from Mesa Park to the Barton's with Maitreya driving is in the works.

An Evening with Martin Shaw & Paul Kingsnorth

08/04/2017 - 7:00pm

An evening with mythologist and storyteller Martin Shaw and novelist and poet Paul Kingsnorth exploring the role of the mythic imagination in the world today. What can myths and old stories tell us about the current global turmoil? Martin and Paul will read from their recent work and discuss the role of story in the times we find ourselves in.

Dr. Martin Shaw is a mythologist and a rites-of-passage guide from the UK. He is regarded as one of the most exciting teachers of the mythic imagination. He is co-designer (with Dr. Carla Stang) of the Myth and Ecology MA program at Schumacher college, and led the Oral Tradition course at Stanford University. Martin is also the principal teacher at the Great Mother conference in the US. Author of the award winning A Branch From The Lightning Tree, Snowy Tower, and Scatterlings: Getting Claimed in the Age of Amnesia, his translations of Gaelic poetry and folklore are widely published.

Paul Kingsnorth is an English writer and thinker. His first novel, The Wake, was longlisted for the Man Booker Prize in 2014. His second, Beast, is published this August by Graywolf Press, as is his essay collection, Confessions of a Recovering Environmentalist. Paul is co-founder of the Dark Mountain Project, an international network of writers, artists and thinkers in search of new stories for turbulent times.

Stinson Beach and Bolinas Community Cleanup
Week of September 4th – 8th, 2017

Stinson Beach and Bolinas residential garbage customers may place cleanup materials from their homes at the curb for collection. You must follow all listed requirements to ensure collection. Items must be at the curb by 6 am on your regularly scheduled collection day. Please don't put items out earlier than the day before your collection day.

Who May Participate:

Residential customers: With accounts in good standing.

Multi-Family Complexes: Complexes with central collection bins must request Cleanup Week collection service. Call 800-243-0291 no later than September 1st.

Businesses: Not eligible to participate.

Requirements:

All requirements must be adhered to during cleanups.

1) Each participant is allowed to dispose of:

14 bags, boxes or cans of refuse up to 3 cubic yards may be placed at the curb OR

7 bags, boxes or cans of refuse AND 1 bulky item OR

2 bulky items (a bulky item is considered an item too large for your trash cart, such as a couch, chair, dresser, etc.).

Some bulky items require an appointment or may incur a collection fee, see 'Special Handling' below.

2) Excess materials will not be removed.

3) Loose items will not be collected.

All material must be contained in bags, boxes or cans.

Yard trimmings must be less than 3" in diameter & less than 3' long, and must be bundled.

4) Prohibited items will not be removed.

No construction and demolition debris.

No liquids, rock, bricks, cement, dirt or asphalt.

5) Hazardous waste will not be collected.

No hazardous waste will be collected curbside: no propane tanks, paint, batteries, pressure treated wood, tires, televisions, computer monitors or "e-waste". Visit www.unicycler.com for e-waste collection & hazardous waste information.

6) Recyclable items.

Keep all recyclable and yardwaste items clearly separated from cleanup debris. Consider donating usable goods to a thrift store or other reuse program.

Special Handling:

Oversized, heavy, bulky item:

Bulky items must weigh LESS than 60 pounds, be less than 5 feet long and capable of being loaded easily into a truck. Large furniture requires an appointment. Call Redwood Empire Disposal at 800-243-0291 by Sept. 1st for collection of large metal items and appliances, such as washer, stove, microwaves, water heaters and refrigerators. A $30 fee is charged for collection of any refrigeration unit.

A $20 fee will be charged for the collection of mattress.

No appointment is needed for small items and general household garbage as described above.

SINGERS WANTED!

PREPARATIONS ARE UNDERWAY FOR THIS YEAR'S SINGING OF FAURE'S REQUIEM

THIS IS A BEAUTIFUL AND MOVING PIECE OF MUSIC, its theme a prayer for the salvation of the souls of the departed. Fauré wasn't a particularly religious man, and although he wrote using the mass as inspiration, his motivations reached farther than the church and its liturgy. Performances will be at the Bolinas Cemetery on November 4th, with the full moon.

Our choir (West Marin Chamber Singers), which has been in its current form since 2007, has mixed levels of experience.... Some read music, some don't, some have sung with choirs before, others are total beginners. This is a community choir and all are welcome! The only requirement is that you can hum along with a tune.

Rehearsals will begin August 16th and will continue each Wednesday, 7 – 8:15 p.m., beginning in Stinson Beach at the church, and moving to Bolinas in October to the Catholic Church. 11 rehearsals total — attending most is recommended.

Participation Fee is $110 (no one turned away for lack of money, subsidies are available.) You will need a score, which you can purchase for $10. Practice CDs or MP3s will be available.

I'm hoping we can get some strong choral momentum going so we can tackle Mozart's requiem next year!! We will need 20 singers to commit in order to move forward, so please RSVP.

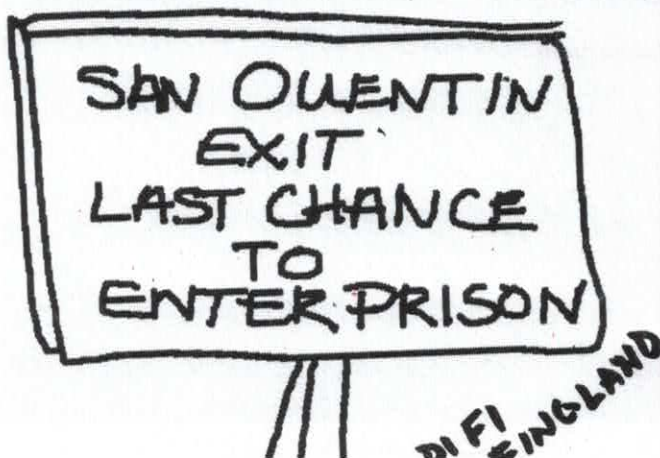

Let me know if you have any questions.

Looking forward to singing with you.

Love, Molly

Thwart the Drilling Off Our Coast

Dear Coastal Friends & Neighbors,

I have a quick update from the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) regarding the new deadline to accept public comments for the review of 11 national marine sanctuary expansions and marine national monument designations and expansions pursuant to Executive Order 13795, Section 4(b). The comment period, initiated on June 26, is now open until Tuesday, August 15. We apologize for the confusion. All comments submitted between June 26, 2017 and August 15, 2017 will be considered. Comments should be personal in nature and mention of financial consequences to the Coastal Economy will be particularly effective. For more information, see below and the Office of National Marine Sanctuaries' website: /react-text <http://sanctuaries.noaa.gov/about/executive-order-13795.html> react-text: 2940 .

Thank you!

Bruce Bowser

Executive Order 13795, Section 4(b)
| Office of National Marine Sanctuaries

Pursuant to Executive Order 13795—Implementing an America-First Offshore Energy Strategy, signed on April 28, 2017, the Department of Commerce is conducting a review of all designations and expansions of National Marine Sanctuaries and Marine National Monuments since April 28, 2007.

The Secretary of Commerce will use the review to inform the preparation of a report under Executive Order 13795, Sec. 4(b)(ii). This Notice identifies 11 National Marine Sanctuaries and Marine National Monuments subject to the review and invites comments to inform the review. The Department of Commerce seeks public comments related to the application of factors in Sec. 4(b)(i)(A), (B) and (C), as stated in Executive Order 13795, for six National Marine Sanctuary expansions and five Marine National Monuments designation and expansions.

READING TO JOHN

On Tues. 8/8 at 10 am on KWMR (89.9) more Orner. He talks about stories that threaten to explode in the heart, how Virgie is so much more than words on the page, and the Cincinnati riots of 2001 that sound a lot like what's happening today. I'll end with reviews.

(note: the wondrous Jane Mickelson will host the program 8/22. Don't miss her.)

Script

This Happening is called The Panoramic Sea Happening. It will soon happen on Brighton Beach in the village of Bolinas six miles from Stinson Beach and twenty four miles from San Francisco. The included sector of the beach is about 550 yards long the presence of the sea should impose itself by motion, rhythm and sound texture within human perceptual capacity.

THE SEA CONCERTO

Parts: Overture	Pausa generale	Fugue	Passacaglia	Arioso
Cantabile	Con fuoco	Finale

Chairs are situated on the sand several hundreds of chairs in regular intervals and rows the front rows are gradually submerging in the sea the audience is taking their seats a compact crowd of sitting people is there now the rows and columns are very carefully aligned chairs are resettled and pushed around people are transplanted removed straightened and adjusted endlessly pedantically and minutely again and again checking correcting lining up in all directions with full understanding of the significance of the arrangement absurd and obsessive in itself this being an orderly adjusting obedient shaping checking loyalty the sedentary square on the sand all of it turned towards the sea in which it is gradually sinking a motor boat brings a conductor in a full evening dress to a pageant yonder in the sea he mounts the wave-washed steps facing the sea he raises his hand up the sea concerto begins the obedient square of the audience flowed by the waves the conductor in his black dress-coat far from the shore he seems to be more and more remote the movements of his hands are suggestive hypnotic he raises his left hand high up along the strand among the public whizzes a motorcycle at full speed it sprinkles the waves crazy fast another one after it a third and fourth fifth a fugue of motorcycles the conductor raises his right hand from the other side a huge farm tractor is approaching the din of motors the heavy rattle of the tractor sprinkles of water rhythmic strokes of foamy waves the conductor shoots right up a rocket a rescue boat is coming from the sea with its buzzer set on a permeating whistle of the siren the conductor turns towards the audience he picks dead fish from a huge bucket and throws them at his listeners methodically then with growing fury all of a sudden he strips off his dress coat and keeping it at its sleeves' ends with its skirts hanging down he veils his face and so he remains.
