OPEN LETTER TO PARK BOARD AND COMMUNITY

September 6, 2012

Dear Mesa Park Board Members;

Though I am planning to attend the September 6, Mesa Park Board Meeting, I'd like to share some personal thoughts for your consideration, before we meet in person.

I congratulate you for accomplishing the HUGE job you set out to do, overcoming the County's bureaucratic hurdles, and surviving the usual intense, scrutiny of the community. I am grateful to be in the middle of the current controversy regarding crafts sales in the park, because I feel I can offer insights and a unique perspective, gained from my experience as a street-artist in Bolinas, for almost 35 years.

Decades of spontaneous sales, in the Park have always drawn the community and visitors off the sidewalk, to gather for social, musical, and playful interchange...No one has ever been in charge; problems have not occurred, and over the years, no slick flea-market vendors from outside the community, ever invaded the space. There is little financial gain to entice "professional" vendors, and no logical reason why beautification of the Park will change this picture. Personally, I set up my table to give myself permission to stop my busy life for a day, and spend time with friends sharing art and ideas. My being there, also gives them, and others, a reason to stop, look and share, in the realm of social and cultural exchange.

We have heard some of the suggestions regarding possible rules and regulations for crafts/yard sales, in the Park, that I will address, when we meet. These proposed restrictions are controversial to many in the community, and would likely prevent spontaneous, creative endeavors, (a beloved tradition), and would effectively destroy the very heart of the endangered spirit of Bolinas. "E Pluribus Unum" has resonated from the soul of Bo, for as long as I can remember. The Community has requested respect for the wishes of many.

I've set up my table in the Park, the past three Saturday's. The first day, three artists joined me. The second time, two came. Last Saturday, I was there alone. In the middle of Summer; what is this revealing? September, I'll be there twice. Will anyone else show up?

I have been inundated by positive feedback from Community members requesting "let it be, as it's been." Why not consider this option? If a problem occurs, (unlikely), it's suggested to "deal with it then". Please, stop by the Park this Saturday, so we can talk further, and you can see what is really happening.

Respectfully yours,
flower sierra

Religion in Human Evolution

Conversation with Michael Lerner

Part of the Point Reyes Books Soul Food Series, this conversation will be held and recorded at the Point Reyes Presbyterian Church.

Robert N. Bellah is a renowned author, international speaker, and Elliott Professor of Sociology Emeritus at the University of California at Berkeley. His latest book, Religion in Human Evolution: From the Paleolithic to the Axial Age, is a work of extraordinary ambition—a wide-ranging, nuanced probing of our biological past to discover the kinds of lives that human beings have most often imagined were worth living. In it Bellah offers what is frequently seen as a forbidden theory of the origin of religion that goes deep into evolution, especially but not exclusively, cultural evolution. Robert's website has more information.

THE POOL in Bolinas

WE WILL BUILD IT IF YOU WILL SWIM!
Dear Citizens of Bolinas and Stinson
Beach,

Check your mailboxes for The Definitive Survey regarding our Pool in Bolinas.
Your responses to this piece will determine if we have the user base to sustain the maintenance of a state-of-the-art swim facility that is more affordable than the over-the-hill alternatives. Our aim is to use the results of this survey to show funding sources that there are enough people who will pay to use the pool. We won't seek to raise taxes.

Kids can take swim lessons locally, lap swimmers, seniors and those with mobility challenges will have an optimum choice for exercise; a recreation option will open for teens and families.

Our quality of life will be that much sweeter! Without your response, we will never know if the pool is possible for our communities. Send it in, drop it off at either the Stinson Beach or Bolinas Library, or take it online at the.poolinbolinas.org.

Your pool steering committee: John Bryant, Kathy Bustamante, Anna Mohn
Gade, Brenda Stine, Donna Andrews, John Hutchinson.
