DANCING TO OUR ANCESTORS

Swaha, a celebratory Odissi classical Indian dance performance in honor of Day of the Dead, by Barbara Framm and Nubia Teiveira, followed by 5RHYTHMS, a collection of songs by musicians who have passed and left their music as a gift for us, directed by Kathy Altman. A heart-felt celebration of the Day of the Dead! Traditionally celebrated in Mexico with joy, music, and dance, the Day of the Dead honors our ancestors and the dear ones that passed. The Dance Palace space will be graced by a traditional Day of the Dead altar. We invite you to bring a memento to the community altar. Contact nubia-coruja@gmail.com, or for more details go to www.bhaktiblisadventures.com.

DAY OF THE DEAD

For more than 3,000 years, the indigenous people who lived in Mexico, the Southwest, and California, have celebrated a ritual honoring the dead. Over time, this ritual became known as El Dia de los Muertos, the Day of the Dead. It is a celebration of life and a time to share memories through arts and crafts, music, stories, and food. Join us in celebrating those who have gone before us. A communal altar will be constructed, so please bring photos, flowers, or mementos of a loved one. Aztec dancers will conclude the night's festivities. Event includes local Mexican Food.

THREE GREAT THINGS ABOUT THIS PLACE...

- (1) The San Francisco Giants. What riveting entertainment it was, watching them come from behind for the pennant, and then sweep the World Series.
- (2) Getting (as a birthday present) one of those turntables that turns the analog signal from vinyl LP's into digital format. Suddenly we have access to those wonderful old recordings that have been on the shelf for years.
- (3) The first good rain of the season.

TO THE BOLINAS COMMUNITY:

Ilka Hartmann is having double hip surgery in November. For when she is out of the hospital I'm hoping several families/people would be willing & able to cook her a meal in a dish or two that can be frozen/heated up easily. If you want to, please call me, Martha Wax, 306-1231, and leave your number & name. Thank you so much!

SPIRIT HOUSE

It's the time of year to gather together 7 people who are willing to tend the Spirit House for 2013. Each tender cleans and decorates the space about every two months. The space is tended every week including providing flowers or a centerpiece and watering the living plants and tree there. This is a great gift to ourselves and the community. Call June @ 9052 or email me at junemcadams@gmail.com if you are able to be part of this team. Thanks, June McAdams

MOSTLY MEETINGS & MISCELLANY

Monday Morning Recap & Week in Review 10/29/12
From Jennie Pfeiffer

It's been a week of World Series (how about the Giants clean sweep!) and Halloween buildup, now we're in the actual Halloween week, all a bit overwhelming. It's appropriate that the elections are this time of year - one big costume party, only scarier because the monsters don't go away after trick or treating us into high anxiety. Halloween falling on a Wednesday this year made the whole pre holiday weekend become a target for costume parties, and the frenzy will be continuing on through Wednesday night. Friday was a "Boo" night at the Bolinas Community Center, sponsored by the Stinson Beach Preschool, with a spaghetti dinner - veggie or meat choice - and a salad and squash. The preschoolers sang Halloween songs, and played carnival games, and then there was popcorn and cartoon movies. A very fun family night.

Halloween is rapidly moving right on up there with Christmas as a "shake your money maker" commercial, build-the-economy, shop-till-you-drop holiday. You can still see some wonderful home built costumes, but mostly it's about buying the popular tv personality replica, and of course LOTS of candy, and lights, etc., which brings me to the sales pitch for "Uniquities", which does still have some recycled items appropriate for costumes, and some affordably priced decorative items. We will continue sponsoring the annual costume ping pong tournament, but it will be moving to the Community Center open house, so it can go until after dark. I plan to be there until Midnight on the Water starts playing at Smiley's, 7:30-9:30. Hope to see you out and about this Halloween - if I recognize you. jp

invites you to be our guest at

You'll be able to meet our new doctor Wendi Joiner who will be joined by

There'll be music by Midnight On the Water,

Don't miss this lovely Sunday afternoon!

"DIA DE LOS MUERTOS"
Th Nov 1 and Fri Nov 2
Bolinas Community Center

You are invited to the celebration of a traditional Latin American holiday that combines pre-Colombian festivals and indigenous traditions with European rituals for honoring the dead. It is celebrated every year at this same time as Halloween and the Christian holy days of All Saints Day and All Souls Day.

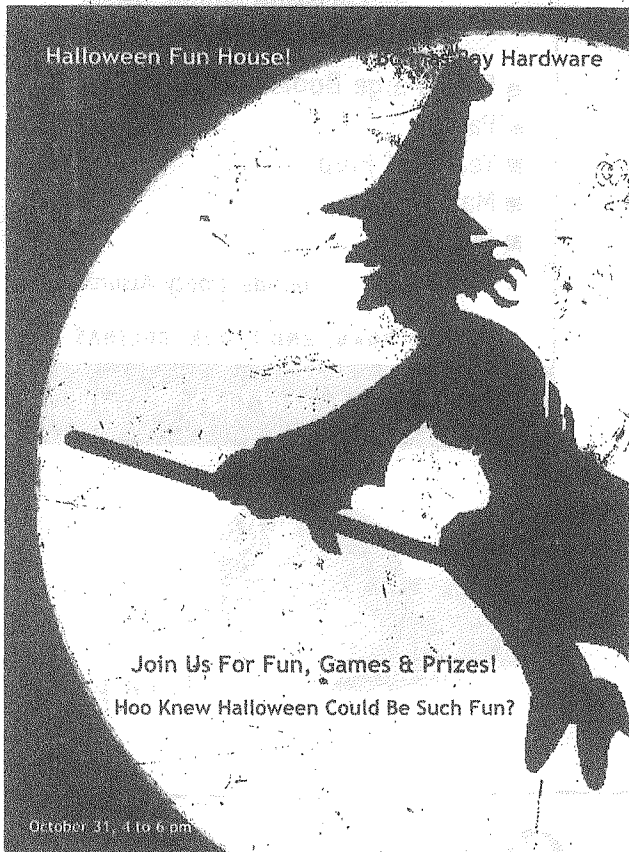

In homes, families arrange "ofrendas" or altars. Tables are covered with fruit, flowers, vegetables, bread, candy, candles, incense, photos of the deceased, papel picado (paper cut-outs) represent the sky. Marigold petals are sprinkled to create a path for the spirits to follow on their return.

Those interested in helping to create our village altar will meet at 8am Thursday, Nov 1 in the BCC hall. Photos of those who have passed over are invited along with mementos and flowers.

The hall will be open for the honoring of "Dia de los Angelitos" (remembering children who have died) on Thursday, Nov 1 from 4pm to midnight. The BCC will have pumpkin soup and cornbread and Mexican chocolate available.

On Friday, Nov. 2, "Dia de los Muertos", the BCC will be open from noon to midnight. Mirta is making traditional pozole and Mexican chocolate. This day is not a sad time, but one rather of remembering and rejoicing. Musicians are welcome.

Please join us for any or all of the celebration you can. Information 868-2128.

How Knew Halloween Could Be Such Fun?

October 31, 4 to 6 pm

From VI@KISA

Foxes in the Hen House will be my guests on Coastal Airwaves Wed 31st (Halloween listen as you costume up) 4 to 5pm
This new wonderful new band barely contains the versatile Pamela Joyce on guitar, mandolin, ukulele, harmonica, drums, washboard, and vocals. It's bassist Dorian Bartley throwing her lush, throaty voice into lead and harmony vocal parts. Kathy Mezger bringing her jazz-blues approach to guitar and mandolin, and adding her sweet voice to the mix. and Linda Sullivan, spicing it all up on fiddle with rich and melodic lines. I am getting 3 out of 4 so stay tuned to 90.5, 89.9 or streaming on the web at KWMR.com I enjoy listening to them and know I will love conversing with them about the cd they are mixing right now and more.

Bolinas Community Center Board Meeting- September 22, 2012

Present – Steve Wrenn, Pam Dake, Jeff Manson, Serita Lewis, Jennie Pfeiffer, StuArt Chapman - President, Susie Mills, Lia Sabbatini – General Manager, Don Read, Susie Stewart, Susan Tacherra - Treasurer, Jan Broek, Maitreya Rose, June McAdams – Secretary.

Visitors-Julia Maxwell, Amelia Neffati

Minutes from August approved as amended along with agenda.

President's Report: StuArt Chapman- All is well.

Treasurer's Report: Susan Tacherra-Finances are looking good right now thanks to Lia and Randi's management. A-cash flow chart will be developed.

Manager's Report: Lia Sabbatini- gave a report about the success of Labor Day. Discussion about type of banner to use next year- StuArt will investigate and report back. The auction went very well. Julie did a great job with the food. The green team, under Jan Broek's leadership, did a very good job. The dessert table was a success. Great t-shirts were sold. We needed more kids t-shirts.

A discussion followed about tripping hazards outside the library-uneven sidewalk and uneven gravel section on side of the Community Center. We need to have a land and grounds committee meeting right away to assess the tripping hazards- immediately after this meeting.

Bostock event was great with the bar very successful. Community Tuesday nights going very well. Talk followed about Halloween which is on Wednesday.-open mike?-open house? Maybe a Ping Pong costumed tournament? Day of the Dead committee was formed and Mirta will be contacted about it. Baby Gym-trial on Tuesdays-12-2PM. They will seek a grant to pay for it. Donation jar was also suggested. A Hearsay article will be written about the baby gym class.

On Wednesdays a kids drama program is to be offered by Lisa Townsend.

A Drawing class will be starting on Fridays 6-9PM with Hermione Horvath with the understanding it will be cancelled if the hall is needed for another event.

Ilka Hartmann is looking for someone to take over The Thanksgiving event for her as she will be having hip surgery then.

Freebox follies- November 17th- Amelia Neffati spoke about this upcoming event in some detail. She wants to have artistic pieces created and auctioned off to raise more funds to support both the Free Box and the Free Box Follies- More later.

The dance palace donated their old light system to us. It was discovered that our light board no longer works. Hooking up the Dance Palace system will cost $1,000. Charlie Docherty to be consulted about what to do to take advantage of this generous donation by the Dance Palace. A discussion followed about various options. A plan is in place to rent or borrow a light board in the interim.

The light committee should come up with a budget for the project to submit to our treasurer, Susan Tacherra. Lia will contact us via e-mail to make a decision with a deadline indicated for response.

The Vending committee must meet said StuArt, Food festival-meetings are every week to plan. Lia reviewed specific plans/schedules. And other details about the event.

Logo discussed-true food? Petting zoo-maybe. Lia reviewed the vendors who will participate. Focus must be kept on this being a fundraiser solely for the kitchen rebuild. Lia is investigating the shuttle set up. Publicity was discussed. The festival will kick off @ 10AM in the community center with food and drink available.

Matt Yerington is having a survey completed for his property, next to the Community Center's property.

All board members, please email Randi which committees you participate on. A reminder that the fundraising workshop with Carol Friedman is on Sat, Oct 6 at 10-12:30.

Meeting adjourned @ 12:25-submitted by June McAdams

Yesterday, Teri Jo (formerly Freeman-Wheeler) sent me an e-mail telling me that Larry Freeman is dying, and since many people still remember him from when he lived in Bolinas. I quote Teri Jo: ".Larry's health has deteriorated from a cascade of serious illnesses. Hospice is in place and all three of Larry's sons are with him at this writing. Anyone who knew Larry, please send Love and prayers from your heart".
