JOHN BOYAJY, PIANIST

John Boyajy received Bachelor's and Masters degrees from the Juilliard School of Music. He has appeared at Avery Fischer Hall in Lincoln Center; on many college campuses; in the Concerts Grand and Dance Palace piano series in Marin County; the Sebastopol Center for the Arts; and Old First Concerts and the Victorian Englander House in San Francisco. He has performed the Beethoven "Fourth Piano Concerto and Choral Fantasy," and the Schumann "Piano Concerto" with the Bay Area Classical Harmonies Orchestra and Chorus under Andrew Chung. In addition to public appearances, he performs at private homes and is often involved in fundraisers and similar community events. John has served as a judge at many competitions, including the United States Open Music Competition, and he is on the Board of Directors of Lieder Alive!, a San Francisco-based organization that invigorates the teaching of German Lieder. A board member of the Marin County branch of the Music Teachers Association of California, John teaches piano and coaches vocalists at his San Marin studio.

KWMR PLEDGE CONCERT

Sponsored by KWMR, West Marin Community Radio as a finale for the Spring 2013 Pledge Drive, please join KWMR at the Dance Palace for a performance by Quartet San Francisco. Proceeds from the concert go towards the Pledge Drive goal. Multiple Grammy nominees, Quartet San Francisco expresses itself in its agility and standout virtuosic playing. QSF was founded in 2001 by celebrated Bay Area violinist and composer-arranger Jeremy Cohen. With violinist Matt Szemela, violist Keith Lawrence, and cellist Kelly Maubetsch, these crossover specialists excel in multiple styles—jazz, tango, pop, blues, bluegrass, gypsy swing, big band.

THREE GREAT THINGS ABOUT THIS PLACE...

(1) Congratulations to the Bolinas Soccer Club's new president: Dieter Tremp.

(2) The vernal equinox: starting this Wednesday, for the next 6 months every day will have more daylight than darkness.

(3) Getting taxes done, early for once. Praises be for TurboTax.

Public Season at Martin Griffin Preserve

March 16 - July 14

Saturday, Sundays, and Holidays

10a.m. to 4p.m.

West Marin residents are invited to Audubon Canyon Ranch's Martin Griffin Preserve (formerly called the Bolinas Lagoon Preserve) during its 2013 Public Season.

Visitors can explore bird and wildlife viewing platforms outfitted with spotting scopes and binoculars, eight miles of hiking trails, picnic tables, and a nature education-focused bookstore and natural history exhibit.

The preserve is home to one of the most studied nesting sites for Great Egrets on the West Coast. The nesting season typically begins in late March and April. Throughout the months of the nesting season, visitors are likely to witness courting rituals, nest building, light blue eggs, chicks and first flights.

Martin Griffin Preserve is located at 4900 Shoreline Highway One, three miles north of Stinson Beach.

WEEKLY WRAP & RECAP 3/18/13 From Jennie Pfeiffer

CORRECTION: Last week I said that next month was the 3rd month with a Saturday the 9th, but I was looking at the calendar incorrectly. February and March both had a Saturdays on the 9, but that will not be the case in April. So the 2nd Saturday is the 13th but as it happens, I will be out of town that weekend, so we will have to move the Flea Market, Royal Rummage Sale, Shop and Swap, to the last Saturday of the month, which will be April 30, the day before Easter Sunday. So lots of time to collect items, or make beautiful art or baskets to offer for sale.

Meetings of the week included two on Monday: a Resource Recovery meeting with an announcement that grinding was happening Wednesday, and that there will be a lot of mulch available for the taking (the difference in mulch and compost is temperature - compost getting much hotter and killing all stray seeds and bacteria, mulch is not as broken down as compost; then Monday night's Mesa Park meeting, providing an update on the water project, which is moving through the permitting process and will be underway in maybe three months.

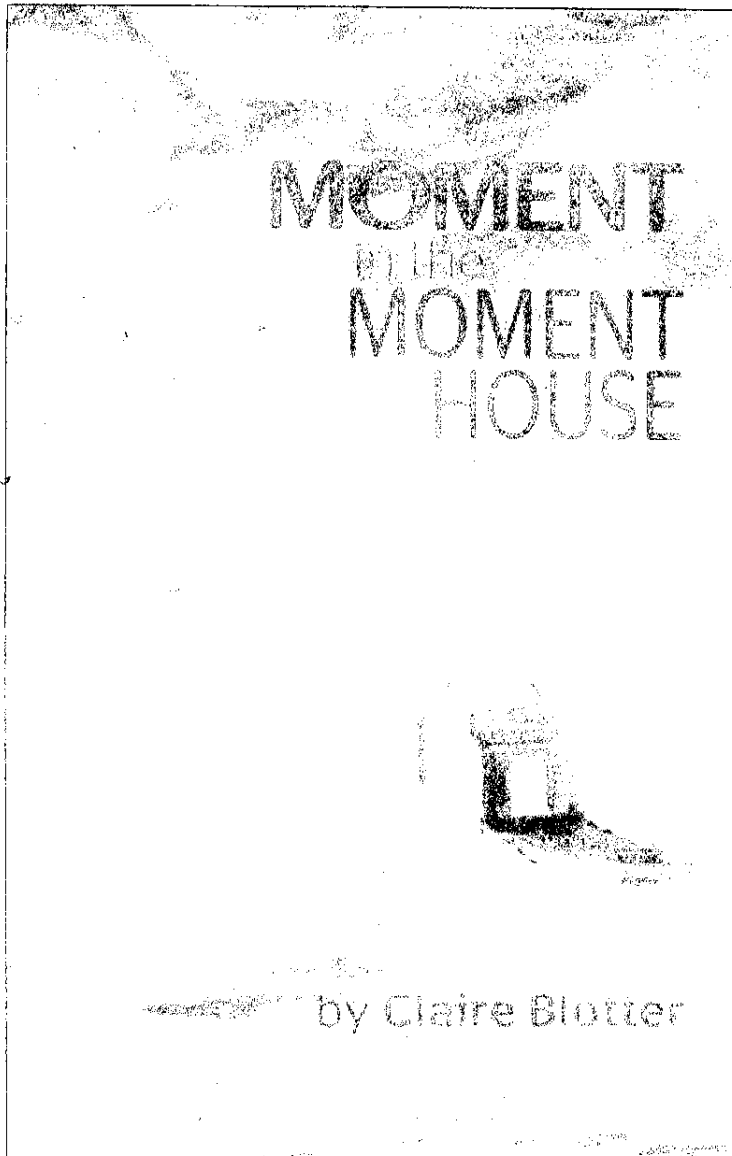

Thursday's star gazing was postponed to this coming Thursday night due to cloud coverage obscuring the evening sky, so you have another chance.

Saturday was the Balinese Community Center's annual membership meeting/dinner. There was a nice turn out and lots of yummy pot luck dishes.

Saturday night Ned and I took baby Simon and Riley Pfeiffer to her first St. Paddy's Party. She seemed to enjoy it, and I know we did.

Sunday was St. Patrick's Day, the annual soccer pot luck party, trophy presentations and election of the new president. Domiano, this year's excellent "president", was unfortunately ill, so the venue changed to our place, and Cheryl Ruggiero, Domiano's wife, graciously brought over all the food she had prepared, which was vast and delicious, and we persevered. Our new "president" is Dieter Tremp, so congratulations to him. The only requirements for being "president" is that the nominee has to have played Sunday soccer at some time during the year and that he or she does not want the job.

Otherwise the week is a blur, and I am looking forward to the possibility of a little rain this week, then more sunshine. jp

BOOK LAUNCH/BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION FOR MOMENT IN THE MOMENT HOUSE

by Claire Blotter on Sat., 3/23/13

I'm excited to announce that the date of the launch party for MOMENT IN THE MOMENT HOUSE, my long awaited poetry chapbook from Finishing Line Press, will be on my birthday, Saturday, March 23, at 7pm at Book Passage, 51 Tamal Vista Blvd. in Corte Madera. Please come! I'll be performing poetry from the book with readings by a small crew of friends: storyteller/fiction writer, Laura McHale Holland, nature poet and essayist, Terri Glass and Susan Goldsmith Wooldridge, author of the best selling poetry writing guide, poemcrazy: freeing your life with words.

This will mark the beginning of my 6 month Celebrate '13 Book Tour during which I will read and perform poetry from Southern California to Oregon to celebrate the publication of my third chapbook. Please let me know of any venues that you think might be good places to read along the way. Thanks, and hope to see you on Saturday!

May 18: Blue Monday show at the Station House Cafe with the High Tide Blues Machine. Featuring Danny Vitali, Michael Pinkham, and Dylan Squires. Blues/Jazz/Soul/Surf. 7 PM. No cover

This year the Bolinas-Stinson Beach School Foundation has supported:

- The modernization of the school library.
- An awe inspiring trip to Yosemite for the 4th grade students.
- An all school field trip to the San Francisco Symphony.
- The middle school students amazing Raku creations.
- The 7th grade students once in a lifetime journey to the Utah desert to find dinosaur fossils with Don Jolley.
- The 8th grade students final hurrah to the fabulous Ashland Shakespeare Festival.
- Scholarships and more for the very popular After School Program.
- The helpful Homework Club.
- The wonderful and creative class book created by the 4th grade students.
- An exciting overnight to Samuel P. Taylor park for our 3rd grade students.
- An enlightening field trip to see Mexican Retablos and the Art of Japan with our renowned art shop classes.
- Sturdy and lyrical wooden recorders for the Music Program.
- Scholarship funds for the fabulous Book Fair.
- A muy importante after school Spanish class.
- The unbelievable Middle School Ballroom dancing program.
- A class council for the second grade students, teaching compassion and listening skills.
- And a multitude of new and enticing books.

As you can see, your donations help to enrich the lives of all the students at the Bolinas Stinson Beach School. We hope that you'll help us continue the tradition of excellent and innovative extracurricular projects and programs at our amazing school by making a tax-deductible donation today.

Sincerely,

Molly Brown, John deLorimier, Amy Harmon,

Parcel tax increase for Bo-Stin

On June 4, Stinson Beach and Bolinas residents will vote on a ballot initiative to approve a $300-per-parcel schools tax, which is a $50 increase from the current rate, starting July 1, 2014. The tax provides the district with almost half a million dollars and helps maintain arts, physical education, music, foreign language and other programs. The board voted on March 5, 4-1, to place the initiative on the ballot. While the current tax doesn't expire until June 30, 2014, Superintendent Larry Enos told the Light that advanced approval from the community helps the district with budgeting and avoids a last-minute scramble to pass the measure.

18 March

St. Edward the Martyr/Celtic tree month of Fearn commences

The Anglo-Saxon monarch Edward, king and martyr, was assassinated on the orders of his stepmother in the year 979 C.E., perhaps as part of a continuing tradition of the sacrificial king who must die for his people.

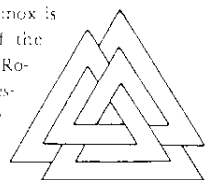

19 March

Athena/Minerva/Eyvind Kinnrifi/Goddess month of Monira ends

The day before the equinox is one of the festivals of the Greek goddess Athena. In Roman times, this was the festival of the birth of the goddess Minerva (left), called Quinquatrus.

Eyvind Kinnrifi was one of Odin's martyrs; their symbol is the Valknut or knot of the slain, above.

20 March

© Vernal Equinox: Alban Eilir, Ostara, Fifth Station of the Year/Iduna/Goddess month of Columbrina commences/Egyptian Day

Today is also sacred to the Norse goddess Iduna, bearer of the magic apples of life who personifies the light half of the year. She appears on this day as a sparrow, bringing joy to humans.
