● Paul Smith Piano Concert

04/01/2018 - 7:00pm to 9:00pm

A benefit concert for Contemporary Opera Marin

Emeritus faculty member Paul Smith presents his annual piano recital to benefit Contemporary Opera Marin. This year's program consists of the scintillating but seldom heard Sonata Opus 12, No. 4 by Muzio Clementi, Robert Schumann's fantastical set of imaginary dances, Davidsbündlertänze, Opus 6, as well as Alexander Scriabin's mystical Fourth Sonata and Sergei Prokofiev's defiant Sixth Sonata, written in response to the horrors of World War II.

Lists of Note – again

From the book, Lists of Note, I am bringing you a few more unusual lists from very interesting people.

Corita Kent was an art teacher at Immaculate Heart College in Los Angeles. She was a nun when she taught there, and later gave up the order but continued being an activist for peace and social justice. Her art classes were extremely popular; people like Alfred Hitchcock, and John Cage attended. If you are an artist of any kind, you may love this list.

Here are her Immaculate Heart Art Department Rules

Rule One: Find a place you trust and then try trusting it for a while.

Rule Two: General duties of a student: pull everything out of your teacher. Pull everything out of your fellow students.

Rule Three: General duties of a teacher: pull everything out of your students.

Rule Four: Consider everything an experiment.

Rule Five: Be self disciplined. This means finding someone who is wise or smart and choosing to follow them. To be disciplined is to follow in a good way. To be self disciplined is to follow in a better way.

Rule Six: Nothing is a mistake. There's no win and no fail. There's only make.

Rule Seven: The only rule is work. If you work it will lead to something. It's the people who do all of the work all the time who eventually catch on to things.

Rule Eight: Don't try to create and analyze at the same time. They're different processes.

Rule Nine: Be happy whenever you can manage it. Enjoy yourself. It's lighter than you think.

Rule Ten: "We're breaking all the rules. Even our own rules. And how do we do that? By leaving plenty of room for x quantities." John Cage

Helpful Hints: Always be around. Come and go to everything. Read anything you can get your hands on. Look at movies carefully, often. Save everything – it might come in handy later.

Mohandas Gandhi

Here are the seven blunders that human society commits, and that cause all the violence. Gandhi wrote this list for his grandson, Arun Gandhi in 1947. Gandhi was assassinated three months later, by a Hindu right wing nationalist.

Wealth without work
Pleasure without conscience
Knowledge without character
Conscience without morality
Science without humanity
Worship without sacrifice
Politics without principles

WHAT HAPPENED

3-19-18 Week in Review

Monday Morning Recap from Jennie Pfeiffer

There was an error in a previous column that I need to quickly correct. The report was that there would be no LAST WEDNESDAY MIDNIGHT ON THE WATER birthday Irish music night at Smiley's this month. That was incorrect. We will be there this Wednesday night, 7:30 to 9:30pm, before Larry's Karaoke. Hope to see Irish and Traditional music fans there, and then there will be one last opportunity to catch this band of long timers, before we slip into the annals of past musical legends, "famous in our own backyard" as StuArt's song goes. Our last night at Smiley's will be May 2nd, a farewell to Sadja Greenwood, wishing her all the best as she prepares for her move to Portland, and a parting glass raised to Lewie Likeover as our little band disbands. It's been a good 20 years, and some combinations of us will probably play here and there around the wild west of Marin, but MOW's last Wednesday of the Month at Smiley's celebrating the month's birthdays will be slip-sliding away.

The giant event of the week was the MARCH FOR OUR LIVES, Saturday around the country. I saw some awesome speeches by some very eloquent teenagers, some students even younger, at some very impressive turnouts in cities around our nation, regarding gun violence and the need for greater gun control to keep our children safe. I am feeling very good about turning the keys over to this next generation. I was very inspired. There were maybe 150 people who showed up in the tiny town of Point Reyes Station where Ned and I took to the streets with signs reminding people that protecting our children is more important than protecting guns, and that the first sentence of the 2nd Amendment includes the words "well-regulated", so how about some regulations?

Additionally, our school had some assemblies this week, dealing with navigating social network stress and pitfalls, as well as a super salsa band entertaining our students while slipping in some social-emotional learning. Friday night was the annual Equinox Spaghetti & Open Mic for kids. It was delightful to see many primary graders up on stage belting out some songs and gaining confidence in a variety of ways to be in the world. Thanks to principal Jason Richards for setting up these events, and to music teacher Anny Densmore for helping our budding musicians blossom.

The kids are all right! Keep it up! jp

P.S. Loved the all-ages family square dance Sat.

HELPING MARIA LUISA

We have almost made the goal of $2000 for Maria Luisa in Escuinapa, Mexico. The community has shown such generosity and caring for a woman who helped so many people here for 12 years. What a great place we live in and what love has come pouring in from you all.

We need about $600 more dollars to help her set up her business so if you can help please give any amount you can. I hope to send the money after Friday's mail.

Please send cash or check to Maria: Garrigues P O 1109 Bolinas 94924 or catch me downtown. Thank you friends that have been so generous already. I will keep you posted. Thank you.

Maria Garrigues

Dear Artists;

We are looking forward to you contributing your artistry to the 2018 Bolinas Community Center's Art and Garden fundraiser April 28th. Your art is a big part of the auction and a favorite of all who attend. We are deeply grateful for your participation.

This year's theme is "Garden of Bolinas" celebrating the glory and uniqueness of our Bolinas.

Call us 868.2128, stop by the office or email randi@bocenter.org if you are interested in participating

Dear Bolinas,

Do you have a service or talent that you would like to donate to the BCC Art, Garden & Food Festival Silent Auction in the form of a gift certificate? This is a great event. The date is 4/28. More details to come.

THREE GREAT THINGS ABOUT THIS PLACE...

- Saturday's Barn-dance, which was a real barn-burner: great turnout, great music, great energy. Thank you, Conor and Melinda. Let's keep it going!
- It looks like the storm window may have closed for a while—sunny days this week. Maybe.
- You know it's spring when you run out of steam from so many events and can't make it to This Old Earthquake. Next time, for sure.

The West Marin Immigration Action Committee will be offering an afternoon training session for ICE Observers. The role of ICE Observers is to be ready to record any visit by ICE agents who happen to visit residents in our communities. Trained ICE Observers will record on their smart phones and notepads the actions ICE agents take when visiting an immigrant's home or workplace. Any ICE agent infraction of an immigrant's constitutional rights will be duly recorded and used toward their release from detention or deportation, should it occur.

The training is fun. We need to increase the number of Trained ICE Observers in Bolinas and Stinson Beach. A Trained ICE Observer does not have to be bilingual to perform his or her job.

If you are not already a Trained ICE Observer, who is registered with the West Marin Rapid Response Team, please consider this training on Saturday, March 31 in Point Reyes.
