THOMAS JOHN: "BAG OF TRICKS" A BRAND NEW JUGGLING SHOW

Thomas John is a recent graduate of the Advanced Training program at the Circus Center in San Francisco and was a beloved teacher at Dance Palace Summer Camp.

Juggling Americana is a look at the American juggling tradition, from the classic three-ball juggling routines from the Vaudevillians, to innovative musical juggling, to a Vegas-review finale. The show is full of quick-witted comedy, circus-level juggling and, of course, the irreverent humor inherited from the legacy of the Pickle Family circus. See Juggling Americana creator Thomas John, the worlds only xylolin (pronounced zy-low-lin) player and the world's foremost juggling Elvis.

THREE MORE GREAT THINGS ABOUT THIS PLACE...

- (1) Sean, Vera and Kitty's big birthday celebration under the oaks at the winery on Horseshoe Hill.
- (2) Respite from the inevitable overbooking of summer activities: a weekend of doing nothing on the banks of the Eel River.
- (3) Big harvest of last fall's garlic planting.

Have Dinner with Chieko Shiina!

Please join us for an evening with Chieko Shiina, organic farmer, Fukushima survivor and organizer & Professor Rebecca Jenisson of Kyoto Sieka University.

We are being kept deliberately uninformed about what is really happening here as a result of Fukushima. It's still releasing radioactivity and in addition, we now have the radiation in the jet stream from the incineration of the radioactive debris. Already we have had elevated levels of radiation found in kelp along the California coast, in bluefin tuna, in Bay Area milk, topsoil and vegetables.

Please come to a special opportunity to hear first hand from Chieko Shiina, who has become one of the major organizers in Japan after the disaster. The women are traveling along the coast of California to speak the truth about the dire catastrophe and Japanese response. After 3-11-11, Chieko organized an unprecedented Japanese encampment of women in Tokyo that became internationally renown and known as Occupy Tokyo.

MOSTLY MEETINGS & MISCELLANY

Monday Morning Week in Review & Recap 7/9/12
from Jennie Pfeiffer

IT WAS A WEDNESDAY JULY 4TH CELEBRATION, which means people got to choose whether they partied the days approaching and into the 4th, or Wednesday and the days after, or for those with greater stamina, maybe two weekends and the week in between. There definitely was a lot going on. The 4th itself, seemed to be a mild and mellow day, considering the number of cars parked every which way from the Catholic church to Mesa Park and along Overlook. Perhaps all those uniformed officers on patrol in town had something to do with keeping chaos in check. Maybe it was the higher tide and less beach. The morning unfolded in a soft and uncrowded way, starting with the tug on the beach, where the Bolinas women and the Stinson men were victorious this year. Congratulations to those who prevailed and to all those who participated on both sides of the Lagoon. Annie was on the balcony for the traditional singing of the Star Spangled Banner, which is always inspiring, and the parade and prize categories were as eclectic as ever. It was fun to see the many returning former community members, back to help celebrate. There was an impromptu Bocci Ball Tournament at Amleto's, where the soccer "float" usually parks after the parade, and present and past soccer players dropped by to visit and catch up in between strolls to Smiley's for food and music, to the Plaza to enjoy the singing/strumming of birthday man Charlie Docherty and Just Friends, or to the beach and back.

Tuesday, the 3rd, was the annual soccer club tennis tournament that went on to late in the day and ended with team Siedman and Squires as this season's champions and owners of the year's bragging rights. It was a treat to have Pirate Pizza available to satisfy the munchies after a long day in the sun making disparaging comments or shouting encouragement, whichever was warranted...or even unwarranted.

I'm loving seeing the new downtown park in use. It is looking so beautiful; and already seems so natural to have that lovely park accommodating all the many people who were strolling/sitting/playing there this week. It's like seeing a friend come back from the dentist with a full, beautiful smile, after years of being used to a bit of decay or the occasional missing tooth. That park was the missing tooth in the smile of our downtown. Thanks to all the dedicated community members who have been working so long and hard to bring it to completion. The surprise stone carvings here and there are a delight to come across. It is an Art Park of stone masonry. Art Park might be a good name, since they're looking for name suggestions - or maybe Community Park, BoRock Park, Tarentino Park, or Moritz Park (since it was his generous gift to the town and was a little "more ritz-y" than we had in mind at the time). So think about other names you'd like and submit them to the Mesa Park board - by way of the Hearsay if you like.

The surprising major news of the week was that our school principal, Leo Kostelnik, has taken a job at Neil Cummins elementary school in Larkspur/Corte Madera. We wish him all the best in his new adventure, and will certainly miss him in our district. He has given the school many years of dedicated and visionary service. It will be difficult to replace him. The Board met this morning to plan for the upcoming school year. We are immediately advertising the opening to applicants in order to have staff in place by the start of school. jp

Did you know that the Bolinas-Stinson Union School District board is studying possible facilities improvements to the school that would allow the district to include preschools? The board-authorized, 9-person Facilities Needs Committee delivered two proposals to the board on June 5, 2012. You can read the FNC report, study its proposals, read minutes and other documents, and join an online question and discussion forum regarding facilities on the Bolinas-Stinson School homepage: <http://bolinas-stinson.org/fnc/forum>. Please join in the discussion and share your thoughts.
