WHITE ELEPHANT SILENT AUCTION

There are many ways to participate in Labor Day, but the silent auction is one of those great win win opportunities. The Community Center wins when there are great items to sell, as that helps us support all the wonderful classes and events that happen at the BCC. The donor wins by passing on some artifact that need to be released back to the community. Something way-to-nice to throw away, but for whatever reason (too full of memories or not enough time for your own garage sale) something you don't want to sell.

The white elephant always reminds me of Ganesha, the Hindu deity that has an elephant head, and multiple arms. Ganesha is the remover of obstacles. So if your stuff is weighing you down, bring the beautiful, useful, desirable items to the Community Center. We'll do our best to find someone who will love it.

P.S. Your donations are tax deductible, we'll be happy to give you a receipt.

Donation Drop off Times:

Thursday Aug. 31 (2-6) * Friday Sept. 1 (10-6)

A BENEFIT FOR THE BOLINAS COMMUNITY CENTER

Dear GGNRA Interim Superintendent Cicely Muldoon,

Please consider the very real potential for violence at a Patriot Prayer rally and the danger it poses to all park visitors to Crissy Field and the surrounding area on August 26. Such a use does not seem in tune with the Mission of GGNRA nor that of the Park Service.

Please stand firm on this and deny the permit.

Sincerely,

Anne Sands

Correction:

Okay, okay, I probably should have called it a 'tortuous' (twisted) eucalyptus rather than 'torturous' (painful). This is regarding last week's photo caption. But all that twisting must have caused the tree pain. Or not.

Someone showed me this; from somewhere on the internet ... source unknown.

If you want us to impeach Trump, give us a sign.

THREE GREAT THINGS ABOUT THIS PLACE...

- The 'end of an era' party, celebrating Susan Tacherra's decades of devotion to the youth of Stinson and Bolinas.

- The 'Light' article about the resurrection of a West Marin heirloom potato varietal: the 'Bodega Red.' Got to get some.

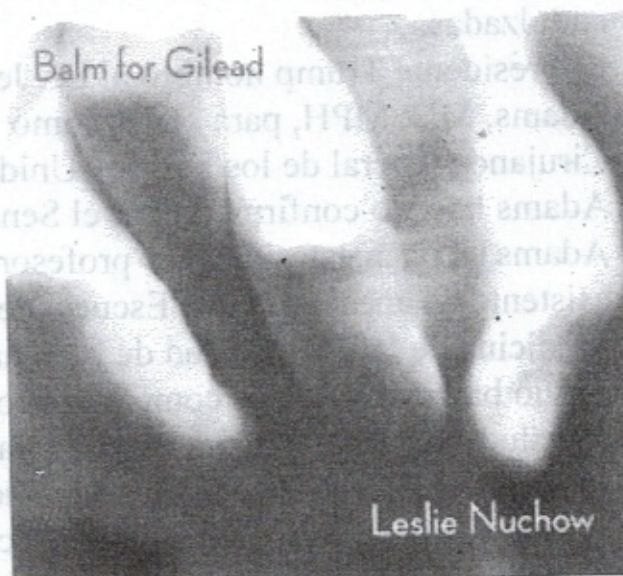

- Today's solar eclipse: we had to catch it online, but it WAS awe-inspiring.

Powerhouse Singer-Songwriter Leslie Nuchow

Saturday, August 26, 8pm

Bolinas Community Center $10 (if you can)

Leslie has been coming to Bolinas for 20 years seeking renewal and inspiration. Some of the songs on this album were written on the Mesa. Her message — which blends nature, spirituality, and activism — is right at home here. The daughter of a labor leader and a feminist historian — music, protest, and healing have always been inseparable for her. She grew up understanding the power of having a voice, and what a voice!

Based in Brooklyn, NY, Leslie has toured widely, singing for Nelson Mandela and sharing the stage with Sarah McLachlan, Patti Smith, Sweet Honey in the Rock, the Indigo Girls and the Dixie Chicks, among others. Leslie's performance of songs from her new album, Balm for Gilead, offers a moving, poetic healing in these troubled times.

Leslie's voice stands alone. — Annie Lennox

Interesting News on Health from the White House!

Brenda Fitzgerald, MD, former state health commissioner for Georgia, has been named director of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. She is an obstetrician-gynecologist with a major interest in maternal and child health. In addition to many years of private practice in Georgia, she was president of the Georgia Obstetrical and Gynecological Society, where she made early childhood development a priority. She is a member of the American Public Health Association, (APHA) a liberal group, which has endorsed her new position. The APHA director has said that "Dr. Fitzgerald is more than prepared to face the health challenges of our time, including Zika, Ebola and our growing burden of chronic disease" Fitzgerald has been quoted as saying that abortion is a matter between a pregnant woman and her doctor. Dr. Fitzgerald is a republican, and a past friend of Newt Gingrich. She has been criticized for accepting funds from Coca Cola to implement an exercise program for children in Georgia. Readers may know that Coca Cola and other soft drink companies emphasize the role of exercise in weight loss and minimize the role of sweetened beverages.

President Trump nominated Jerome Adams, MD, MPH, to serve as U.S. Surgeon General. Adams has been confirmed by the Senate. Adams is an anesthesiologist and assistant professor of anesthesia at the Indiana University School of Medicine. He served under Mike Pence as Indiana's state health Commissioner. In this job, he was concerned with the growing opioid epidemic and a rapid rise in cases of HIV and hepatitis C from needle sharing. He reluctantly became a supporter of clean needle exchanges. He has a master's degree in public health from U.C. Berkeley where he worked with the city to develop a chronic disease prevention plan. He has worked with medical research projects in Zimbabwe and the Netherlands. Dr. Adams is an African American. As Surgeon General he plans to focus on the opioid epidemic and untreated mental illness. The APHA has praised the nomination of Dr. Adams.

Noticias interesantes sobre la salud de la Casa Blanca!

Brenda Fitzgerald, MD, ex comisionada estatal de salud de Georgia, ha sido nombrada directora de los Centros para el Control y la Prevención de Enfermedades. Es ginecóloga obstétrica con un gran interés en la salud materno-infantil. Además de muchos años de práctica privada en Georgia, fue presidenta de la Georgia Obstetrical and Gynecological Society, donde hizo del desarrollo de la primera infancia una prioridad. Es miembro de la Asociación Americana de Salud Pública (APHA, por sus siglas en inglés), un grupo liberal que ha respaldado su nueva posición. El director de la APHA ha dicho que "Dr. Fitzgerald está más que preparado para afrontar los retos de salud de nuestro tiempo, incluyendo Zika, Ebola y nuestra creciente carga de enfermedades crónicas." Fitzgerald ha sido citado diciendo que el aborto es un asunto entre una mujer embarazada y su médico. El Dr. Fitzgerald es un republicano, y un amigo pasado de Newt Gingrich. Ella ha sido criticada por aceptar fondos de Coca Cola para implementar un programa de ejercicios para niños en Georgia. Los lectores pueden saber que Coca Cola y otras compañías de refrescos enfatizan el papel del ejercicio en la pérdida de peso y minimizan el papel de las bebidas endulzadas.

El Presidente Trump nombró al Dr. Jerome Adams, MD, MPH, para servir como Cirujano General de los Estados Unidos. Adams ha sido confirmado por el Senado. Adams es un anestesiólogo y profesor asistente de anestesia en la Escuela de Medicina de la Universidad de Indiana. Sirvió bajo Mike Pence como comisionado de salud estatal de Indiana. En este trabajo, le preocupaba la creciente epidemia de opiáceos y un rápido aumento de los casos de VIH y hepatitis C por compartir agujas. De mala gana se convirtió en un partidario de los intercambios de agujas limpias. Tiene una maestría en salud pública de la

WHAT HAPPENED THIS WEEK

Week in Review Recap from Jenniepfeiffer
8-21-17 Monday Morning Memo

This morning's Total Eclipse of the sun by the moon, is totally eclipsing this Recap, as I listen to NPR reports following the timetable of total darkness as it moves in it's southeastern path, all very exciting. My report on this eclipse is from inside the fog, where things are just a darker shade of grey. I did make an attempt to find some sun, prior to commencement of the event, but wherever I checked, reports were that the whole Bay Area was socked in, even East Bay and as far north as Cotati. A school bus took some sun seekers up to the top of Mt. Tam, but I missed that, so am waiting to hear if they were able to find good viewing - seems unlikely.

Otherwise, it was a week of regular monthly meetings and community gatherings, including a Saturday night full house, fun-filled End of an Era Celebration in the Bolinas Community Center, marking the ending of an outstanding 50 year run of the Stinson Beach Pre-school, and most especially honoring Susan Tacherra for her loving guidance of Stinson and Bolinas children for over 40 years. There was music throughout the evening by many of our very talented local musicians, starting with Bill Quist, welcoming party-goers, then Molly Maguire, with a delightful set of song favorites; then Amanda Mann and her awesome daughters, Bella and Sadie, with their excellent harmonies. After dinner when the tables were moved away to allow some dancing, there was a set by Ethan Okamura and Steve Trivelpiece, followed by a robust closing from Alex Bleeker and Danny Vitali. Thanks to all of them, and a major thank you to John Sabbatini for the delicious chicken and lasagna. Potluck dishes were Soo good and the desserts did not disappoint. Many happy memories were shared and lots of love filled the hall. Art Rogers, with his amazing patience, corralled all those generations of alumni and parents as they surrounded Susan for a keepsake photo for the ages. Thanks to all who were able to get there to help celebrate. Omar and Lorelei and many stalwart teachers of the past were there, giving and receiving hugs and appreciation.

Starting with Monday's Mesa Park Board meeting, then to Tuesday's Trustees of the School Board, then moving to Wednesday's water Board, Bolinas Community Public Utility District meeting, there was a lot going on, too much to capture here. It does look as though things are on track to start school Wednesday, day after tomorrow, our town parks are continuing to be happy beautiful places to play, and the BCPUD is looking at the possibility of gaining ownership of the College of Marin Biology lab and wharf dock through a coalition of County and community organizations. I am hoping there can also be such a collaboration to get a pool and gym finally built at Mesa Park, and I will be working on that. So much happening in our little town, as always, as we press on regardless. Jp P.S. So glad to be leaving Leo this week moving to Virgo.
