GLEANNINGS Mary Barrow

One encouraging aspect of the negative is its truthfulness. The negative does not lie. It will tell you clearly where you court absence rather than inhabit presence. On entering your solitude, one of the first presences to announce itself is the negative. Nietzsche said that one of the best days of his life was the day when he rebaptized all negative qualities as his best qualities. In this kind of baptism, rather than banishing what is at first glimpse, unwelcome, you bring it home to unity with your life. This is the slow and difficult work of self-retrieval. Every person has certain qualities or presences in their heart that are awkward, disturbing, and negative. One of your sacred duties is to exercise kindness toward them. In a sense, you are called to be a loving parent to your delinquent qualities. Your kindness will slowly poultice their negativity, alleviate their fear, and help them to see that your soul is a home where there is no judgement or febrile hunger for a fixed and limited identity. The negative threatens us so powerfully precisely because it is an invitation to an art of compassion and self-enlargement that our small thinking utterly resists.

From "Anam Cara" by John O'Donohue

My imperfections and failures are as much a blessing from God as my successes and my talents and I lay them both at his feet.
Mahatma Gandhi

Daisies

It is possible, I suppose that sometime we will learn everything there is to learn: what the world is, for example, and what it means. I think this as I am crossing from one field to another, in summer, and the mockingbird is mocking me, as one who either knows enough already or knows enough to be perfectly content not knowing. Song being born of quest he knows this: he must turn silent were he suddenly assaulted with answers. Instead oh hear his wild, caustic, tender warbling ceaselessly unanswered. At my feet the white-petalled daisies display the small suns of their center piece, their - if you don't mind my saying so - their hearts. Of course I could be wrong, perhaps their hearts are pale and narrow and hidden in the roots. What do I know? But this: it is heaven itself to take what is given, to see what is plain; what the sun lights up willingly for example - I think this as I reach down, not to pick but merely to touch - the suitability of the field for the daisies, and the daisies for the field.

- Mary Oliver

Por Que Venimos Why We Come

Free Film Showing with Discussion and Refreshments
 Pelicula, Discusion, y Refrescos Gratuitos

Most of us in West Marin have met and know people who left their home and country to migrate to the United States – for economic, political, social, and/or family reasons. Their combined stories add to the American story, the patchwork quilt of language, skin color, and culture. Their stories are essential to understanding our local history, too, from early explorers and settlers and their interactions with the Miwok peoples, to Portuguese ranchers, to the more recent arrival of Mexican, Guatemalan and other Latin Americans who have helped develop our local economy (and many others as well).

Por Que Venimos/Why We Come is a film featuring migrants living in San Rafael's Canal District telling their stories about why and how they journeyed to the United States. The film showing and discussion that will follow present an opportunity for our community to expand our knowledge and understanding of the factors that inspired those journeys, and provide a forum for our immigrant neighbors to share their own stories as well. The 45-minute film is bilingual, and the ensuing discussion will be facilitated with translation.

All are welcome. Please bring your family and friends to this community gathering. Refreshments will be served.

The newly formed Bolinas Immigrant Action Committee is working with West Marin Community Services and West Marin's "Standing Together" Rapid Response Team to support our immigrant neighbors in becoming more fully and securely integrated into our community's social and economic fabric. Join us and help discern ways to support the immigrant residents of Bolinas.

Por Que Venimos se cuentan las historias de inmigrantes viviendo en el distrito Canal de San Rafael. En ellas se relata por qué salieron de sus viviendas natales para hacer el viaje penoso hacia El Norte. Se muestra el coraje extraordinario de gente común hacienda riesgos grands para buscar una vida mejor para sus familias, y en particular para sus niños.

Después de la película bilingüe, habrá un panel de discusión de inmigrantes locales presentando sus historias, y tiempo para contestar pregunta de la audiencia. El evento es gratis.

Bolinas Museum presents Great Minds Panel Discussion BETWEEN THE TIDES: LIVING SHORELINES IN A TIME OF CLIMATE CHANGE.

Saturday, October 21 ~ 2-4 PM
 at Bolinas Community Center ~ FREE

Oyster reefs are being tested in the United States as an approach to mitigate the effects of climate change and to restore critical habitat to our waterways. At this Great Minds event, Alison Sant of the Studio for Urban Projects will moderate a fascinating conversation on this topic with Robin Grossinger, Senior Scientist and Program Director of the San Francisco Estuary Institute's Resilient Landscapes Program; Katharyn Boyer, Professor of Biology at the Romberg Tiburon Center for Environmental Studies, San Francisco State University; Maria Brown, Superintendent of the Greater Farallones National Marine Sanctuary; and a representative from Hog Island Oyster Company.

Bolinas Community Center / 14 Wharf Road, Bolinas.
 FREE ~$10 suggested donation at the door. No reservation required.

HALLOWEEN COSTUME TRADE & CREATION
 DEPOT AT BOLINAS COMMONS

You can make 868+ corrections and additions at the Costume Creation Days at the Bolinas Commons, October 19, 5:00-8:00; and October 25, 4:00-7:00.

Hope to see you there.

SECOND SATURDAY SALE MERGING WITH
 DEPOT AT BOLINAS COMMONS

With Halloween approaching, the 2nd Saturday Sale and Swap Day will not be happening this Saturday, but will merge with the Costume Creation Days scheduled at the Commons, October 10, 6:30-8:30; October 19, 5:00-8:00; and October 25, 4:00-7:00.

Hope to see you there.

Full Moon Requiem

The West Marin Chamber Singers will be performing Fauré's Requiem on Saturday, Nov. 4, 2017 at St Mary Magdalene, in Bolinas. There will be a 6:00 pm solo cello in the cemetery, followed by a 7:00 pm concert in the church. It will be directed by Molly Maguire, with soloists Chris Ruppe, soprano & Matt Lewis, tenor. Katy Boyd will be joining us on cello, with Bill Quist on keyboard. The suggested donation is $10-$20, but no one will be turned away for lack of funds.

Seeking Sponsors

We are currently seeking $20 sponsors for this event. For that $20, you will not only have our GRATITUDE (and the good feelings that come from knowing you are supporting a worthy cause), but in addition, you will also have your name printed in the program as a sponsor. Alternately, you may choose to use that space in the program to honor and remember someone who has passed. For example, the sponsorship could be listed as "in memory of...". If you have more than one person to honor, you are welcome to buy more than one sponsorship. The deadline for adding names to the program is 5:00 pm Thursday, Nov 2nd.

To sponsor this event please call Stacey Henderson at 868-2004 or email staceyhenderson@compuserve.com

There are Large Feline Predators in Town

On my run down Agate Beach this morning, I saw a group of vultures cleaning off a freshly eviscerated doe carcass, while an injured and bleeding buck stumbled around on the beach. As soon as he saw me, he ran right into the ocean and swam out quite a ways. I quickly went further down the beach so the buck would feel safe to come back in, and he did, stumbling back onto the beach and up into the eucalyptus groves. There was evidence of a scuffle on the beach and a combination of deer tracks and 3-4" wide feline tracks (mountain lion? another large cat?).

I've never seen anything like that. As many of you are aware, animals are fleeing the fires en masse, and are hungry, thirsty, and traumatized. Have sympathy for them, but also please keep your pets safe!

The Bolinas Stinson Union School District's Facilities Needs Committee is seeking preliminary input from staff, parents and the public in order to assess the viability of a bond measure for particular projects on our school's campuses. The committee's goal is to provide the Board of Trustees with a draft list of bond projects for discussion in December.

General obligation bonds are often used by school districts in California to pay for large projects that would not be affordable through a school's regular funding sources; bonds typically pay for new construction and major upgrades of existing facilities and are not used for normal operating expenses.
