The Angel of Healing Arts

by StuArt

The closing party for Healing Arts in Stinson was profound and mystical, like the store itself. We crowded around a candlelit table in the small room that used to be the library. Everyone at the table had been connected with Marion and Healing Arts. Each person spoke about that connection and how it had influenced their life.

Each person's story was a testament to Healing Arts. Ernesto spoke about the encouragement Healing Arts had given him for his art. Camila talked about Healing Arts affording her the opportunity to connect the Mayan elders and the seed project. I was touched when Elliot spoke about the positive influence of Healing Arts on his life.

My own experience with Healing Arts was unique. Soon after she opened the store Marion hired me to help with the signage. I painted unusual signs like "The Sandtray Room of Self-Discovery," and a six foot cut-out of a healing hand with a spiral.

Marion also asked me to spruce up Healing Arts with color. She chose a beautiful aqua blue-green. I dry-brushed every exposed surface of the building, including window mullions and door jambs, until the building glowed with healing color.

Recently however, I hadn't spent much time at Healing Arts. As people told their stories, I gained new appreciation for the store as a portal to the healing power of art. I felt sad that an oasis like Healing Arts was closing.

But I also felt a connection with everyone crowded into the little back room of Healing Arts. The gathering felt holy. I was reminded of "The Last Supper" painted by Leonardo DaVinci or Salvador Dali. I imagined the descent of the Holy Spirit like a dove from heaven.

That evening I decided to sketch the scene at Healing Arts from memory. I was surprised and delighted when I saw the form of an angel appear in the drawing. I had sensed an angelic presence hovering above us, but I had been too preoccupied with my personal agenda to surrender to it.

The drawing showed how the gathering of healing artists in the backroom of Healing Arts created an angel, or what more rational types might call a coalescence.)

That angel - the Spirit of Healing Arts - "coalesced" at a certain point in time and space (Wednesday, November 14, 2012, Healing Arts in Stinson Beach, California.)

Those of us who gathered to celebrate the closing of Healing Arts were fortunate to share that coalescing of spiritual energy, which I call the Angel of Healing Arts. We are now imbued with the "Spirit of the Backroom."

But that spirit, the Angel of Healing Arts, is available to anyone at anytime. It's easy.

Simply stop all preoccupation with self, and open to the healing energy falling from above.

Think of nothing but pure color.

Aqua blue-green is a nice choice.

THANKSGIVING WEEKEND

Bolinas Community Center Board Meeting – October 20, 2012

Directors and staff present: Randi Arnold - Development Director, Chris Besenty, StuArt Chapman - President, Pam Dake, Mirta Guzman, Serita Lewis, Jeff Manson, June McAdams - Secretary, Susie Mills, Lia Sabbatini - General Manager, Susie Stewart, Steve Wrenn.

Visitors: Stacey Besenty, Steve Matson - President Bolinas Community Land Trust, Bill Martin - President Lion's Club, Matt Yerington - New Neighbor, Kathleen O'Neill - Scribe

10:20 a.m. meeting called to order.

Steve Matson took the floor to present his proposal to plant a row of trees in the unpaved strip owned by the Yeringtons on the garage side of the building. Discussion followed, with a vote to seek more information about costs and permits.

Minutes for the July meeting approved. Agenda amended.

President's report: StuArt thanks everyone for the Food Festival, and recounts the good will the community had for the event, and hopes that it will become a regular harvest celebration.

Treasurer's report: We are doing better than budgeted in general. The festival made about $6,500 after expenses, but staff hours have not been included. Susie Stewart hoped that we would get a report that included the hours.

Manager's report: Lia raves about everyone who made the Food Festival such a success. We still have a way to go on the kitchen upgrade but this was a wildly successful way to initiate the fund drive. There are more plans underway to bring in the remainder needed.

There was some discussion about changing the day and time for the Board meeting as Saturday morning is difficult for some potential board members, and Monday or Tuesday evening at 6 or 7 might be good alternate times to hold the meeting.

New stronger pipes are up for the lights that were donated by the Dance Palace. They also gave us a 20 light dimmer, but at the moment we are using a borrowed light board, and need to buy our own. Don Smith & Clay Liliston are helping with the lights.

Monday Evening has two new classes that are alternating Mondays. They are Figure Drawing with Hermione and Dancing with Eleanor.

Upcoming events include Monday, Oct. 30 a Jeff Manson music event; Tuesday - Community Night with an open mic; Halloween will be an open house, a place for people to drop in and hang-out. Thursday and Friday will be Día de los Angelitos and Día de los Muertos. Planning ensued for those events, including food and volunteer hours.

We are still looking for someone to help set-up and organize Thanksgiving.

Development Director's report: Randi is looking into a county block grant for the kitchen, and was encouraged to apply by the county representative. Money is coming in from Marin County to help the Village and Beach clean-up fund.

The BCC is being taxed on our downtown property because of the rental to a for-profit business. Randi reviewing with the People's Store.

Other business: Santa's emissary Steve Wrenn will be keeping us all informed of Santa's full program He gives the board a presentation for this year's Winter Faire. He assures us that Santa will be at the Community Center. He will visit only on Saturday, Dec. 8 from 11 am to 4:30 pm or until the last child in line gets to sit on his lap. All photos cost $5 which is donated to the BCC. Santa is collecting toys and food to be distributed locally, and is accepting letters for personal reply.

Meeting adjourned at 12:00 pm

Petition for Drake's Bay Oyster Company

If you believe in family farms, local food production, and -- yes -- environmental responsibility, I urge you to sign the petition to allow the Drake's Bay Oyster company to renew its lease in the National Park. It's the very best type of food production -- no chemicals, fertilizers, watering, soil or water pollution. Plus the oysters actually filter and clean the water. ## MESA PARK BOARD MEETING

October 8, 2012, 7:00 PM
Firehouse Meeting Room

Called to Order: 7:07

Members present: Geoff Geupel, Bryan Lee, Jane Mickelson, Charles Whitefield, Patricia Hickey

Others: Vic Amoroso, Lia Sabbatini, Angela Vernon, Suki Ferrari, Jack Siedman, Shari Fae Dell, Ned Riley, Jenny Pfeiffer, Anna Gade

Community Expression: Charles reported that BPUD will begin excavating to move the Terrace Ave. water main. Charles will work with Jennifer to arrange parking of the equipment & finds and will meet with the engineer in charge this week. The soil will fill up the far side of the parking lot for a while. He'll have them park equipment next to fence & not on pavement area. The area will be used for approximately a few weeks.

Area for about 20 cars will remain behind that area.

Downtown Park

--Lia Sabbatini, BCC manager, Food Festival: We will use our own caution tape to keep foot traffic off the hillside, using the stakes already in place around trees. Also will put up a backdrop for the acoustic music acts, to block view of the dumpsters. Opening in park at 11 am. We're going to have a membership table. Have sent the insurance information to the board. There will be food stands and a kids' area in back with balance bikes, two people staffing the area & supervising, between 12-2 games for kids; pony rides. [Patricia] I'd like to come & campaign for Measures E and A. [Lia] Come coordinate with me.

--Roger Peacock: up-dates. Geoff got an up-date from Alethea. Hoping to start building the pavilion next month, final inspection the month after. Angela reported that there needs to be some kind of lockable cover for the electricity outlet by the bathrooms which are being used without permission. Charles suggested turning off the circuit breaker when it's not needed for work in the park. Discussion ensued about coordinating care of the various parks. Angela can put together a list of required steps to give to the caretaker. Jack S. met with the county to discuss hiring a local person to clean & maintain, with the county paying Mesa Park to employ that person. Suki will work with Angela to set up a plan. The budgets for the downtown park and Mesa Park are kept separate.

--Discussion on vending, wording for signage, and approve Downtown Park usage policy. [Jack] The ordinance recommended by the Down Town committee is to use language very similar to Marin county's ordinances. These are similar to other community parks across the state. The committee asks that they be approved as shown and explained in the Hearsay news last week. Commercial use is not prohibited but needs to be given a specific site and time. We urge the board to adopt those ordinances. [Charles] I see the vending as bringing color and inviting people into the park. Could finding a specific site and time be of help? [Patricia] There should not be food vending unless they have insurance. [Jack] John Glavis & Stuart have offered to coordinate vending in the park. [Patricia] They would have to oversee clean-up as well. [Jack] We have said that it needs to be on the gravel drive. [Suki] You might want to consider size of area taken by one vendor. [Geoff] I would like to add an additional ordinance (#10) to do not feed the wild or feral animals. [Patricia] I move to pass the 9 county ordinances suggested by the Down Town park committee. Bryan 2nd. 4 in favor, 1 opposed.

Maintenance Report

--Use policy for waste containers: [Suki] The person who runs the food give-away could use a key.

--Disposal of old tractor: [Charles] Moved that Rovan be allowed to take it away, Bryan 2nd, all aye. Charles will get United to bring a new portable bathroom.

Suki is getting some ground cover from American Soils to replace the material under the swings. The fields are dry right now; no mowing. [Jenny] What can we do to make the MP soccer field playable? The school field will soon be closed. [Suki] The back field is pretty good right now. If that were mowed and the goals moved over, it would be a good field for playing. [Bryan] The county did not do the proper repairs after using the field for the repair on Overlook.

Pool Development: [Anna] The surveys went out and we've gotten very positive responses. Most of the respondents are Bolinas people. We're also sending them to weekend homeowners. We've received %75 of the responses we need to start a capital campaign. We had an article in the Marin Citizen, and a guest column in the Pt. Reyes Light last week. We are focusing on our 2 communities, but not excluding users from other towns who would pay a slightly higher rate of user fee. 82% positive, 17% negative responses. [Patricia] You need a financial planner. You might put a list on your website asking for people with specific skills to join the committee.

Irrigation Report: Repair or replace old water storage tank; approve grant amendment [Bryan] State made us delete the pump installation, so this is the up-dated amount. I would suggest we authorize Jennifer to authorize minor changes to the budget so we don't have to wait for the monthly Mesa Park mtg. to do so. We've been working with Oliver & Co. for information on the lift station. We're about 70% there with the documentation. There's an exclusionary period for the red-legged frogs. We will have to hire a project manager to handle all the documentation and oversee the construction. [Charles] I move that we adopt the changes to the budget, and allow up to 15% to be modified without board approval. Jane 2nd. All in favor.

Treasurer's Report: [Patricia] Christine submitted annual state controller filing. Prior audit is almost complete. There is an issue about assets. They have added the playground to the list of assets. We are finalizing that. I will call Roy Givens the state comptroller about options for the audit based on our income. We could just work with the county of Marin, but need clarification about possible changes as a result of the gift of the Down Town park; if that triggers an annual audit requirement, that will have to be paid by the DT park fund. It might be that filing an annual report will suffice. We still need a budget and projections from Roger for the DT park.

Approve Warrants: [Charles] I move that we approve the warrants. [Jane] 2nd. All aye.

Other: transfer of downtown park water meter to Mesa Park. [Geoff] We'll need it for the bathrooms. What do we need to do? [Vic] Ask Jennifer. There's no official form. There may be a charge. [Geoff] We need to have a board member present for that meeting. [Charles] I can go.

Up-date on election status: [Jane] I have been submitting two endorsements for Measure E per week in the Hearsay. People have been very helpful giving me photos to illustrate the various activities that take place in the park. I was also interviewed by the Marin IJ for an article about Measure E, published on October 4.

Approve Minutes: Motion to approve by Charles, Patricia 2nd.

Next meeting: Nov. 12, 7 pm at the Firehouse.

Meeting adjourned: 9:15 pm.
