Surf's Up Santa!

by StuArt

Wow! another Winter Faire is upon us. Seems like only yesterday that I was saying, "See you next year!" Now it is next year.

Not only that — it's Winter Faire 2012, only two weeks until THE END (of the Mayan calendar.)

I remember one Winter Faire when I made silkscreened potholders. The protest against Diablo Canyon was happening at that time and I put a picture of the nuke plant and the words "Too hot to handle" on the potholder.

I had another potholder with a picture of Nancy Reagan waving. I put "Heil Nancy" above her head so it looked like Nancy was giving a fascist salute.

Of course I printed a big cannabis leaf on some of the potholders. You know — "pot" holders.

I silkscreened t-shirts in those days. I only sold Border Patrol t-shirts at the Winter Faire. I figured that the real locals would get their t-shirts in December at the Faire.

I made sure that Border Patrol t-shirts were not available during the summer when all the tourists and poseurs were in town. Like the rest of Bolinas, the power of the Border Patrol lay in its exclusivity.

For years I set up my booth next the door to the furnace room. All my friends would gather at my booth, and we would party the entire weekend.

Friday night was a madhouse. The Community Center would be completely packed with people. There was very little room to move around. The Christmas cheer would be flowing and the crowd noise deafening.

It was my vision of the American Dream — making money and celebrating at the same time. Friday night was uproarious, and Saturday night was just as crazed. By Sunday we were all exhausted, and the day was spent in quiet recovery until the evening, when it was usually raining and time to pack up and leave.

There was no better hangover remedy than Claire Heart's Thai soup. Claire made fabulous Thai food during the Faire and her coconut ginger lemon soup was divine. I usually limited my Faire food to Claire's Thai soup and Rolling Rock.

Sometimes I was too enthusiastic in celebrating the holiday spirit. One year I brought my newly purchased Fender Twin Reverb amplifier to the Faire. I'd bought it used and it was well worn, but the amplifier had a great spring reverb and a built in tremolo. I could easily get a deep, throbbing surf sound out of it.

At the Fair I discovered that I could play along to the Christmas soundtrack in the background. It was fun to add some live improvisation to the Muzak. The amplifier's distinctive sound reverberated through the Community Center, and the tired Christmas jingles became bluesy surf boogies. Surf's up, Santa!

Some of the other vendors did not share my enthusiasm however, and they began to petition against my Twin Reverb. Naturally, I responded by turning it up. Before there was a confrontation however, the fates intervened. As I was rocking out to Jinglebells, the chair that I was sprawled in tipped over backwards. One last twangy chord rang out from the amplifier as I crashed against it and we all collapsed into an ignominious heap on the floor of the Community Center.

I'd been naughty and I knew it. It was Divine Retribution. I bruised a rib when I fell against the amplifier, and the lingering pain was a reminder of my inappropriate behavior. After that, I always took an acoustic guitar to the Winter Faire.

Come visit my booth at the Winter Faire this weekend. I'll be up on the stage with Santa Claus.

A LETTER FROM SANTA TO BOLINAS

As you may know, I will be visiting Bolinas on Dec. 8th at the BCC. I hope you will come to see me but it has come to my attention that there may be, in these hard times, some people in Bolinas who may not have a very merry Christmas.

If you know someone in town (senior citizen, child, family, even pets) who could use a little something extra to make their holiday a little happier, please put it in the form of a letter to Santa and drop it in Santa's Mailbox at the Community Center on the 8th and Santa will try to help them on Christmas. Please include a phone number in the letter, so Santa can call you if he needs details on color, size, etc.

MERRY CHRISTMAS!!!!

ATTENTION ALL MOTHERS WITH BABIES!

Just recently, A young- mother-friend of mine, told me that when she was taking a class in "How to care for her baby", she was told to "Rub lavender oil on the headboard of her baby's crib". The reason being: the scent of lavender creates a calm, soothing, effect on the baby and promotes their restful sleep!

With this knowledge, I have created a "Baby-bliss" pillow. It is 8 & half inches long, 4 & a half-inches wide, filled with fragrant (local) organic lavender and strung with white satin ribbon so it can be tied to the side of the baby's crib. The fabric is of a beautiful, garden design that my daughter, Signy, brought me from France while visit - her sister, Bethany, ( both of whom grew up in Bolinas!). The pillows are being sold at the Bolinas Winter Faire, Dec. 7, 8, 9th @ the BOCC along with lavender eye-pillows, sachets, & small bed pillows. Also, organic catnip mice & pillows. Hawaiian "To & From" cards, plus our annual, Best-Seller, Wild Bolinas Blackberry Vinegar!... Barbara Pace's FAMOUS Christmas cookie recipe ( Begged for & SO Generously given to me!), with butter, walnuts, crystallized ginger, chocolate tidbits, & dried cranberries.

Please come to the Faire & experience all the wealth of our hand-done crafts.

My son, Jeffrey will also be selling his Fine Honey-Craft (ho-ho) (The bees work don't they?) @ our booth!

See you there!

Peace, Love & Unity,... Mary Barror

!!!!!! COTTAGE FOOD BILL PASSED !!!!!

As hard as it may be to believe, the Governor has signed HB - 1616 - the "Cottage Food" bill into law allowing for private home exemption to the State food laws.

It is now legal to create certain homemade food products to sell directly to the public or retail outlets. I'm still gathering the details - but as I presently understand it, we can now produce jams (hey Maddy - bring back your jams!!!) - pickles - breads - spice blends - and herbal teas at home and sell them. An annual permit will be required - and a one-day training in home food safety, including production, packaging, labeling (must be marked as homemade) with NO HEALTH FOOD INSPECTION - unless complaints are lodged by a consumer. This is big news for our community - and for all California communities that are working towards the creation of local food systems.

FYI - I plan to launch - The West Marin Department of Homegrown Security Network and The Bolinas Community Cooperative Farming Collective in early 2013. This will be part of a Sustainability Innovation Hub calling all interested individuals to participate in the creation of an organization to support on-going local projects focused on food and energy interdependence and the establishment of alternative economic models for our people. This will have an educational component to inspire and offer training for our youth with a vision of providing real jobs - the sharing of our vast resources - and the creation of real opportunities to dissolve the barriers between generations.

If this is of interest, e-mail me at <heirloomhuman@gmail.com> and/or connect on my FaceBook page <john.glavis@facebook.com>

The time is now - the place is here - and we will hold the line together by realizing our full potential as a community with a colorful compassionate history of truly creative and authentic individuals...

Hello everyone,

Wow, already in December, can't believe how fast this year has flown by!

November sure was a memorable month starting with the exquisite Day of the Dead Altar Mirta Guzman created. My eyes filled with tears multiple times admiring the beautiful alters and remembering our friends and family who have continued their journeys to new beginnings.

Mary and Magi's Cabaret was a great event showcasing our town's wonderful talent. It was also the first time musicians got to play on our newly sound baffled stage – what a difference! Everyone is thrilled about the changes happening with our acoustics upgrade in the Hall, more happening January 2013.

Maitreya put on another wonderful reggae event with Amandlaband and Julie with Bobolicious cooked the socks off everyone with her dinner she prepared in the kitchen. Thank you everyone for putting on such beautiful community events at our center!
