Free box Follies Fashion Show

When we had our first meetings for the follies,

StuArt said lets invite unpredictability. I definitely think that come to fruition. We had such a good time rehearsing and making clothes for this year's follies. Amelia was having so much fun in fact that I'm not sure she got any sleep the week before. The fashions that spoke to her and magically came out of her serger were incredible! Our gorgeous models made them look that much better. I'm so grateful to Barbara Kayfetz for coming and running the backstage for her last year? She had so much fun and it was so sweet seeing her dance while Rob Lenhoff sang to her, I'm hoping she can't stay away. With Barbara there it freed up Bronwen and Victoria to model, I know we are all glad they did!

I'm so so grateful to Schehera for going along with all our requests, and being such a creative force. Somehow she found the time to not only rehearse all three of our major bits but make some really great pieces of art for us all to wear. I loved watching Amelia and Schehera's chemistry for little red riding hood and the tripping Coyote. Her idea for the graffiti piece was so great and I wish I could've seen it from the other side! I'm sure something really great will come from that board of Bo. I'm also thinking we'll be seeing her and Evi's graffiti collection around town. I know I'll be wearing mine.

I loved seeing everyone's talent shine through. All our beautiful ladies and sweet young girls that made the cat walk. Omar mixing songs and doing a really divine job. Don Smith working the lights to perfection.

Evi and Blair have found their calling with their amazing job of MC's for the night. Our wonderfully talented community of performers, Doug Lee, Bronwen & Victoria, Martine, John Cozzi, Jan Broek, Jerry Bo Jeste with his adorable little performers, Bella & Sadie Mann with Sofia Borg, Emma Lee, and my partner in "time" StuArt. To my fellow lady Boots, thank you so much!! Beth you have a beautiful voice and some really great moves! Oh man what fun! The BCC made some money for some much needed repairs to boot! Thank you to our wonderful appreciative audience. You made it all worthwhile! Love you all! Katie Weber

Freebox Follies Rap-Up

Wow! What a fabulous, creative expression of CommUnity and Culture.

And beauty and talent.

And style and chutzpah.

And fun and frolic.

If you were there, you know what I mean.

And if you weren't, well . . . next year.

I'm not going to spend any time recounting the event. Instead I'm going to personally and publicly thank the people involved in making this Freebox Follies the best one yet.

- Thanks to Schehera for being there from the beginning, for showing us how to cut & braid t-shirts, for planning the graffiti painting segment, for playing Little Red Riding Hood and making mushrooms for the coyote to eat, for dancing and modeling and generally being beautiful and thrilling and creative.

- Thanks to Amelia for organizing the backstage chaos, and for hostessing sewing bees, and for designing and making beautiful, outrageous fashions, and for modeling and walking the walk, and for being the Coyote who ate the mushrooms that Little Red Riding Hood picked and placed in her basket.

- Thanks to Barbara K., for being so gorgeous and graceful and helping Amelia run backstage like she has forever, and for accepting flowers and our love for being so wonderful and contributing so much to the Follies and the soul of Bolinas.

- Thanks to Katie for being at every meeting and for representing the Community Center and organizing the volunteers and helping with the logistics and for choosing the theme and prancing and dancing in her thigh-high boots made for walking.

- Thanks to Bronwen for being so graceful and gorgeous and so much fun, and for gracing the runway with her beautiful self, and for singing harmony with Victoria, "Hey, Little Red Riding Hood, you sure are looking good." and for strutting her stuff in those boots made for walking.

- Thanks to Victoria for contributing so much from the very beginning, and for being so wonderfully blonde and singing Little Red Riding Hood with so much soul and intonation, and for walking the walk and for being lovely and fun.

- Thanks to Evie and Blair for being the best M.C.'s we've ever had. And for being lively and irrepressible, and having fun and letting everyone know it, and managing to handle every act and every glitch with humor and aplomb.

- Thanks to Omar for being the best DJ ever, and for choosing the right music and maintaining an upbeat vibe regardless of the chaos, and for spinning the end of the night into a crescendo of community love and spirit and dancing.

- Thanks to Don Smith for such a great job of running the lights and making the FREEBOX sign throb with delight.

- Thanks to Signy for helping out backstage with make-up and hair, and strutting her stuff and for standing in for my "menswear line"

- Thanks to Isabella for being Dorothy from the Wizard of Oz with her little dog, Toto! we're not in Kansas anymore!

- Thanks to Beth for leading the bevy of booted beauties and for singing "These Boots Are Made For Walking" so much better than Nancy Sinatra.

- Thanks to Doug for accompanying Victoria on his Telecaster, and to John Cozzi for singing his hilarious "Boots and Buttons" and to Jan for his lovestruck ballads, and to Jerry and Meeksu and Arlo for their wonderful skit.

- Thanks to Rob for bringing everyone to tears when he sang to Barbara K.

- Thanks to Perry for donning a wedding dress and getting wed to Ashley in her wild big furry buffalo get-up, and to Alex for being a cosmic rabbi and performing the wedding ceremony and also marrying Perry to a printer from the Freebox, because even techno objects share consciousness.

- Thanks to Suzi for running the boutique, and to June and Susan for working the door and to Jesse and Evan for running the bar.

- Have I forgotten to mention you? Please let me know and I'll post a follow-up thank you in the next Hearsay.

- Thank you to everyone for making this Follies the greatest ever.

- As I said at the beginning, thank you for contributing to the home-grown, down home. local, grassroots watershed culture of Bolinas.

- Thank you for making it beautiful.

- StuArt

Saturday, March 26, 5:00 PM

$20 Advance, General

$25 Day of Show

$30 Reserved Seats

Take a trip down bluegrass memory lane with veteran bluegrass fiddler Blaine Sprouse as he shares memories from his archival photo and video collection and plays songs from his long esteemed career playing alongside many of the greatest bluegrass legends: Jimmy
Martin, Bill Monroe, James Monroe,
Kenny Baker, Jim & Jesse, the Osborne
Brothers, Béla Fleck, Jerry Douglas, Sam
Bush, Peter Rowan and more. Tim Weed will facilitate the evening as Blaine shares
this musical reminiscence of his career through stories, images and live music.
Presented by Sound Orchard, a Northern California nonprofit dedicated to building community through music. Tickets and more info at www.soundorchard.org.

Caroline Casey

Between laughs and being awestruck at Her brilliant wordplay I tried to sketch and squibble some salient points

Were you there? Did you also have a chance to experience Her Beauty and Intellect?

No? Well then you can still listen to the podcast of her talk by dialing in the New School at Commonweal.org.

I'm in love with Caroline Casey.
 She's such a cunning linguist and has such a delicious and provocative way with words.
 And She's such a Marvelous Astrologer and has such a way with the Planets.
 And She's such a Visionary Activist and has such cosmic insight into the political scene.
 Oh my God, I mean Oh my Goddess!
 I'm so smitten with Caroline Casey, and I had another chance to bask in Her Presence at Commonwealth on Sunday when the New School brought Her to town.

Caroline is also giving an online workshop from now until Election Day - dial up the Shift Network (when I say "dial up" I assume you know what I mean: click up.)
 Anyway, thank you Caroline. I worship at your feet, you wonderful trickster coyote. Woof!
 Also thanks to the New School at Commonwealth for bringing Caroline to Bolinas.
 And congratulations to Commonwealth on your 40th Anniversary.

With fond regards, StuArt
