THANK-ROOO Very Much!!

Thank you Bolinas Community for spending the evening watching The Dog Wedding last week with me. The history and culture of this magic place is inspiring and I am honored that the film was so well received. Your warmth, laughter, and emotions we shared in that incredible communal space was unforgettable to me. That memory will be a source of inspiration as I continue in my struggle in being a film-

Effective Communication

Strategies Thursday, May 19,
1:30 PM This program, co-sponsored by the Alzheimer's Association and West Marin Senior Services, is designed to provide practical information and resources to help dementia caregivers learn to decode verbal and behavioral messages from people with dementia. The goals of the program are for participants to better understand the changes in communication that occur with disease progression and how they manifest in the person with dementia, and to be able to identify ways to connect at each stage of the diseases. Registration is requested--please call the Alzheimer's Association at (415) 472-4340 to reserve your space.

Fun Time at the Farmstand

Fun time last night at the Farmstand. Got to open for Alex Bleeker and the Freeks and sing some local stuff. We called ourselves The Psychedelic Seniors. Alex played bass, Charlie played drums, Kathleen and Suzi sang back-up.

"Down at the Farmstand" was our first song, and it was totally fun to sing about that unique place where they mix produce and art.

"There at the tip of the Point Reyes Peninsula. There, what a trip, at the tip of the Peninsula." Lyrics from "Together" which we sang second - once again celebrating the place we live.

"Her Perfect Cup of Tea" was next, the famous song about Martha Stewart getting dosed in Bolinas.

"And she took another sip of tea. Martha took another sip of tea."

Then our theme song "Psychedelic Seniors" which rocked the house as we sang out "shake our booties, and rattle our brains."

We ended with "The Best One Yet"

Because it is. And because it was.

Thank you Alex for inviting us to play.

LOVE DOGS!

Dear Community,

Unfortunately for all of the needy dogs desperate for our services, Love Dogs for Life has not received sufficient funding such that we can continue this worthy work. Not only does this situation mean that numerous needy dogs will not be able to obtain food and healthcare, but our important local source of discounts and welfare -- Pt. Reyes Animal Hospital -- will be without our business. The ripple effect is worrisome, as I know that many of us in these three towns of Bolinas, Pt. Reyes and Stinson count on having local services available to us, especially when it comes to pet emergencies and care. And although we plan on having another fundraiser event before the end of the year, I am desperately asking for your donations now so that we do not have to stop providing mercy and care to those in our community who count on Love Dogs as a safety net for their beloved pets. The publicity for Love Dogs has resulted in more needy pets seeking necessary and belated care, but no more money. It is with great sadness and concern that I make this plea. And it is with great hope that I make this plea, as well. Thank you.

Faultline Institute: "Still a good idea!"

Faultline Institute was founded in 1973 by a bunch of renegade intellectuals who thought that adult education, taught locally, was a good idea. It was originally part of the Adult Education Program of the Tamalpais High School District, serving West Marin. One of the original descriptions reads as follows: "The classes are taught by residents from the towns of Bolinas and Stinson Beach, making the idea of a community teaching itself a reality. Faultline, over the years, has surfaced and resurfaced and now has surfaced again. It keeps coming back because it IS still a good idea and has benefited many people in many ways, over the years.

Faultline Institute @ the Bolinas Commons: A place for classes, workshops, learning groups, and lectures

For most of its existence Faultline Institute has been an itinerant classroom, holding classes in people's homes and other varied locations. Last month at the Commons, we put up an inspiring exhibit of old catalogs and ephemera from Faultline's 40-plus year history and asked whether housing a new Faultline Institute in the centrally located and newly energized Bolinas Commons might create new educational opportunities and access for the Bolinas community. Faultline co-founder, Retired Dean Emeritus, Michael Rafferty, bestowed his blessing upon the new space, and Harriet Kossman, co-founder and Dean, met and brainstormed with members of the Commons collective. From this meeting emerged Faultline Institute @ the Bolinas Commons. Together, we plan to create opportunities for classes, workshops, learning groups, and lectures at the Commons. The first summer term will run from June 20- August 9. If you are interested in teaching or hosting a class, workshop, learning group, or lecture please contact us by May 30th. We will provide signup forms at the bookstore and other locations, which can be filled out and dropped in the mail slot on the front door of the Bolinas Commons or you can fill out our online form on our webpage, www.bolinascommons.org/faultline. For more information send an email to Harriet at harrietkossman@gmail.com or call Harriet (1365) or Vanessa (9078).
