Ode to a Beautiful Night

On just such a night
I wouldn't mind dying
Better yet
Let me have three of these cozy, granny nights
Hushed warm and quiet
One for the coroner's confirmation
One for the laying out in my well-worn corduroys
And one with zephyrs and birdsong
for the lyrical funeral
Beneath the tree, amid the stars
And all my loving friends
Modulating from Death
To thoughts of Spring.

Herman Berlandt

NO LONGER FORWARD OR BEHIND
I LOOK IN HOPE OR FEAR;
BUT, GRATEFUL, TAKE THE GOOD I FIND
THE BEST OF NOW AND HERE

JOHN GREENLEAF WHITTIER

In fact, nobody—but nobody—can experience our lives for us; nobody can feel for us the pain that life inevitably brings. The price we must pay to grow is always in front of our noses; and we never have a real practice until we realize our unwillingness to pay any price at all. Sadly, as long as we evade, we shut ourselves off from the wonder of what life is and what we are. We try to hold on to people who we think can mitigate our pain for us. We try to dominate them, to keep them with us, even to fool them into taking care of our suffering. But alas, there are no free lunches, no giveaways. A jewel of great price is never a giveaway. We must earn it, with steady, unrelenting practice.

We must earn it in each moment, not just in the “spiritual side” of our life. How we keep our obligations to others, how we serve others, whether we make the effort of attention that is called for each moment of our life—all of this is paying the price for the jewel.

Joanne Kyger Memorial Tribute

Joanne Kyger (1934-2017) was one of the most respected and beloved poets of our time, and an almost 50-year resident of Bolinas. She published more than 30 books of poetry and prose, starting with The Tapestry and the Web (1965) and including The Japan and India Journals: 1960-1964 (2000), As Ever: Selected Poems (2002), About Now: Collected Poems (2007), On Time (2015), and Year of the Ram (2016). She taught at Naropa University, New College of California, at home, and elsewhere, and was a longtime editor of the Bolinās Hearsay News. There You Are: Interviews, Journals, and Ephemera will appear in September.

For this celebration of her life and work, longtime poetic colleagues and friends will read brief tributes, memories, and samples of her work, with some special added treats.

A 2015 New School interview with Kyger is here:

http://tns.commonweal.org/podcasts/joanne-kyger/#.WVvZ-4Wf_w4

The Celebration of Joanne will be held at the New School at Commonweal on Saturday, July 22 from 3:00 pm - 4:30 pm. Please register for the event at: thenewschool@commonweal.org.

Carpooling to Commonweal is encouraged.
